PREFACE.

WITH the completion of this volume has come the armistice, and with the advent of peace we may now look forward to an amelioration of the difficult condition of the printing trade.

In spite of shortage of workmen, high prices and scarcity of paper, this magazine has been carried on without a break, for which our thanks are due to Messrs. Mitchell Hughes and Clarke.

To meet partly the increased charges and wages it has been found advisable to raise the amount of subscription from 10*s.* to 15*s.* per annum, and even with that increase the Editor will be out of pocket £100 a year.

Among several subscribers who have passed away, we have to deplore more especially the loss of Sir Alfred Scott-Gatty, "Garter," who was, on his mother's side, great-grandson of a planter in Dominica, and grandson of the Rev. A. J. Scott, who resided in Antigua 1772-76 with Sir Ralph Payne, and was later Chaplain of H.M.S. Victory. Another old contributor was the late Lieut.-Col. H. W. Pook, who was interested in St. Kitts, and was an active member of the Society of Genealogists of London.

During the past year the list of wills in Barbados to 1800 has been concluded, and P.C.C. Administrations brought down to 1666.

West Indian Grantees of Arms have been reprinted from the Harleian Society's volumes. Mr. Reginald Glencross has been able to resume his abstracts of Nevis Wills for which we are grateful. West Indian M.I. in this country have appeared regularly, and there is very little material left.

Numerous short pedigrees continue to be printed, and of these there are hundreds more in MS. They must of necessity be often sketchy and doubtful, until a search in the island record offices has been made, but they nevertheless afford a basis for future research and correction.

A supplement to the Book-plates has increased the collection to 806, and it is now very difficult to discover additional plates, though Mr. Frederic Cattle is ever on the watch.

1766, June 30. James Tobin, esq., and Eliz. Webbe; sp. lic.

James Tobin wrote several pamphlets in favour of the planters. The Rev. James Ramsay, sometime Rector in St. Kitts, wrote in favour of the slaves. The two thus became antagonists, and numerous letters, replies and rejoinders passed between them.

I have "A letter to James Tobin Esq. late M. of H.M. Council in Nevis from James Ramsay A.M. Vicar of Teston pp. 40, 8vo, published in 1787." This was written after the publication of "A short Rejoinder to the Rev. Mr. Ramsay's Reply by James Tobin Esq." Mr. Ramsay states that he knew a ship-master of Nevis called Tobin, whose son was sent to England and placed with an attorney. About 1760-1 this son visited Nevis, but soon returned to England. On the death of his father about 1768-9 he made another short visit to Nevis, and in 1779 came out a third time and remained two or three years.

In another volume of pamphlets, formerly Jas. Tobin's own copy with his bookplate, is bound "A plain man's thoughts on the present price of Sugar pp. 22, 8°, 1792." Signed in ink: "James Tobin."

Some few years ago a gentleman interested in the Tobins corresponded with me, and as a result printed "Notes on the Tobin Family," pp. 6, 8vo, with a folding tabular pedigree.

The Case of Henry Willoughby, Esq;

Claiming the title, honour, and dignity of

WILLOUGHBY OF PARHAM.

To be heard at the bar at the House of Lords on the .... Day of .... 1767.

The Petition ſets forth, That Sir William Willoughby, Knight, was, by Letters Patent dated 16th February, 1ſt Edward 6th, created Lord Willoughby of Parham, to hold to him, and the Heirs Male of his Body.

That he was ſucceeded in the ſaid Honor by his Son Lord Charles, who had Iſſue Five Sons; namely, William, Sir Ambroſe, Edward, Charles, and Sir Thomas; and was ſucceeded in the Honor by his Grandſon Lord William, the Son and Heir of William his eldeſt Son.

That the Heirs Male of the ſaid William, Firſt Son of Lord Charles, enjoyed the ſaid Honor, ſucceſſively, till the Year 1680, when Lord Charles, the laſt ſurviving Heir Male of that Line, died without Iſſue Male; and thereby the Line of the ſaid William, Firſt Son of Lord Charles, became extinct.

That thereupon the Petitioner's Grandfather Henry, the only Son and Heir of Edward, who was the only Son and Heir of the ſaid Sir Ambroſe, Second Son of the firſt-named Lord Charles, became rightfully intitled to the Honor of

I. WILLIAM, created Lord Willoughby of Parham, 1ſt Edw. 6th, to him and the HEIRS MALE of his Body.

II. CHARLES Lord Willoughby of Parham married Margaret, daughter of Edward Earl of Lincoln.

VII. JOHN Lord Willoughby of Parham died young.

ELIZABETH married James Bertie.

Colonel HENRY WILLOUGHBY, the preſent CLAIMANT.

WILLIAM (2d) EDWARD (3d) JOSEPH (4th) dead without Iſſue.

FORTUNE WILLOUGHBY (5th Son) deceaſed.

GEORGE WILLOUGHBY.

Resolv'd that the Petr has fully made out his Claim. (Written in ink.)

Willoughby of Parham; but that in 1680, and for ſome Years before, the Petitioner's Grandfather was ſettled in Virginia, and died there in 1685, ignorant of the Failure of the Iſſue Male of the elder Branch, deſcended from the firſt named Lord Charles, and left Iſſue the Petitioner's Father his only Son, then an Infant.

That the Petitioner's Grandfather and his Infant Son being, in 1680, the only Male Deſcendants of the ſaid Sir Ambroſe Willoughby, Second Son of Lord Charles, and the Petitioner's Grandfather not appearing to claim the ſaid Honor; and Edward and Charles, the Third and Fourth Sons of Lord Charles, being long before dead without Iſſue, Thomas Willoughby, the only Son of Sir Thomas Willoughby, the youngeſt Son of Lord Charles, claimed the ſaid Honor, and took his Seat in Parliament on the 21ſt of October 1680; and the Deſcendants of the ſaid Thomas ſat in Parliament until the laſt Hugh, who ſat in Parliament by that Title, and died without Iſſue in January 1765; by whoſe Death the Iſſue Male of Sir Thomas Willoughby, the Fifth Son of the firſt named Charles, became extinct.

That the Petitioner is Heir Male of the Body of Sir William Willoughby, Knight, the Firſt Grantee of the Honor; being a Lineal Deſcendant from the ſaid Sir Ambroſe, the Second Son of the firſt named Charles Lord Willoughby, in the following Manner:

Sir Ambroſe Willoughby, by his Wife Sufan Brooke, the Grandaughter and Heireſs of Richard Pates, had Iſſue Edward, their only Son, who, by Rebecca his Wife, had Iſſue Henry (who was in Virginia at the Time of the Failure of the Iſſue Male of the eldeſt Son of the firſt named Charles Lord Willoughby) who, by Mary his Wife, had Iſſue Henry, who, by Elizabeth his Wife, had Iſſue the Petitioner.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to refer this Petition to the Right Honourable the Houſe of Peers, to examine the Allegations thereof, as to what relates to the Petitioner's Title, the Caſe made by the Petition (it is humbly ſubmitted) will be fully made out, if the following Propoſitions are proved, after ſhewing the Creation of Sir William Willoughby a Baron in Tail Male, by the Title of Lord Willoughby of Parham, and that he was ſucceeded by his Son Lord Charles, who had Iſſue William, his eldeſt Son.

Firſt, That the Heirs Male of William, the eldeſt Son of Charles Lord Willoughby, became extinct in 1680.

A

XII. Edward Lord Willoughby ſat in Parliament in 1712, died in 1713 without Iſſue.

XIII. Charles Lord Willoughby ſat in Parliament in 1713.

XIV. Hugh Lord Willoughby of Parham ſat in 17 . ., died without Iſſue January 1765.

Second, That the preſent Claimant is the Lineal Deſcendant, and Heir Male of the Body of Sir Ambroſe Willoughby, the Second Son of the ſaid Lord Charles, and, in conſequence, the Heir Male of the Body of Sir William Willoughby, the Firſt Grantee of the Honor.

William Willoughby, Eſq; the eldeſt Son of Charles Lord Willoughby, had Iſſue William, who ſucceeded Lord Charles in the Honor.

William Lord Willoughby, Grandſon of Charles, had Iſſue two Sons, Francis his eldeſt, and William his youngeſt Son; and Francis ſucceeded his Father in the Honor.

The ſaid Francis Lord Willoughby afterwards died, without Iſſue Male; upon whoſe Death the ſaid William Willoughby, his Brother, became intitled to the Honor, who died, leaving George his eldeſt Son, and John and Charles, his younger Sons; and upon the Death of the ſaid William Lord Willoughby (Brother of the ſaid Francis) the ſaid George, his eldeſt Son, ſucceeded to the ſaid Title, and died, leaving John, his eldeſt Son, an Infant, who ſucceeded to the ſaid Honor, and died without Iſſue Male; upon whoſe Death the Honor deſcended to the before named John, the Uncle of the ſaid John laſt named; and upon the Death of the ſaid John the Uncle without Iſſue Male, the Honor deſcended to Charles, the youngeſt Brother of the ſaid George, and John; who likewiſe died without Iſſue Male in 1680, leaving Elizabeth Willoughby, afterwards Elizabeth Bertie, his Niece and Heir at Law; and thereby the Male Line of William Willoughby, Eſq; the eldeſt Son of the firſt named Charles Lord Willoughby, became extinct.

The Male Line of the ſaid William, eldeſt Son of the firſt named Lord Charles, being thus become extinct in 1680, the Claimant's Grandfather Henry Willoughby became then intitled to the Honor; he being the Son and Heir of Edward Willoughby, who was the only Son and Heir of Sir Ambroſe Willoughby, the Second Son of the firſt named Lord Charles.

But it appears, That in 1680, and for ſome Years before, the ſaid Henry, the Grandfather, was ſettled in Virginia, and died there in 1685, ignorant of the Extinction of ſuch Iſſue Male of the Firſt Line, leaving Henry Willoughby, the Claimant's Father, his only Son, then an Infant.

In 1680, during the Abſence of the real Heir, in a foreign Country, Thomas Willoughby, the Son of Sir Thomas, the Fifth Son of the firſt named Lord Charles, was ſummoned to Parliament, by the Title of Lord Willoughby of Parham, and took his Seat accordingly, upon a Preſumption, that Sir Ambroſe, and his Two Brothers, Edward and Charles, were all dead, without Iſſue Male; and the Deſcendants of Thomas continued to enjoy the Honor, until the Death of Hugh, the laſt Lord Willoughby of Parham, who died, unmarried, in January 1765.

The Firſt Line being extinct, the preſent Claimant's Title, it is humbly ſubmitted, is clear; he being the Lineal Deſcendant, and Heir Male of the Body of Sir Ambroſe Willoughby, the Second Son of the ſaid firſt named Charles Lord Willoughby, and, in conſequence, the Heir Male of the Body of Sir William Willoughby, the Firſt Grantee of the Honor.

Ambroſe, (afterwards Sir Ambroſe Willoughby) was Second Son of the Firſt Charles Lord Willoughby, and married Suſan Brooke, the Grandaughter, and Heireſs of Richard Pates of Matſon, in the County of Glouceſter, Eſquire.

Sir Ambroſe Willoughby, and Dame Suſan, had Iſſue Edward Willoughby, Eſquire, their only Son, who married Rebecca Draper, and Sir Ambroſe Willoughby dying, Dame Suſan, his Widow, afterwards intermarried with Sir Robert Lovett of Sulbury, in the County of Bucks, Knt.

Edward Willoughby, and Rebecca his Wife, had Iſſue Henry, their eldeſt Son, baptized at Stewkeley, in Bucks, 14th November 1626.

Henry Willoughby married Mary, and had Iſſue Henry (the Claimant's Father) and lived at Minſterworth, in the County of Glouceſter.

In 1675, Henry Willoughby (the Claimant's Grandfather) by the Advice of George Hudſon, to whom he had ſold his Eſtate, went to Virginia, taking with him a Daughter named Rebecca, who afterwards married Richard Hull, and leaving behind him, at Minſterworth, Mary his Wife, Henry (the Claimant's Father) his eldeſt Son, and Sarah his Daughter.

In 1680, (being the Year in which the Iſſue Male of the eldeſt Son of the Firſt Lord Charles became extinct) Henry (the Claimant's Father) was of the Age of Fifteen Years; and on the 26th of November 1685, Henry, the Claimant's Grandfather, died at Hull's Creek, in Virginia.

Henry Willoughby, the Claimant's Father, married Elizabeth Pigeon, 28th July 1695.

Henry and Elizabeth had Iſſue the preſent Claimant, their eldeſt Son, and William, Edward and Joſeph (who are all dead without Iſſue) and Fortune, their youngeſt Son, who is alſo dead, leaving George, his only Son and Heir.

DWARRIS LETTERS.

The following 57 letters were written by William Dwarris and his wife from Jamaica to her father Lilley Smith, Esq., of Coventry. Some of them are very long and uninteresting, but I have made abstracts of all items of local interest. The letters were sold to me by a dealer.

1. 1781, May 14. On board the Vere and approaching the Downs. Yesterday we sealed our Guns, as did two other armed ships.

2. 1781, July 20. S^t Lucia. We left p^tsm^th the 20^th May in company with the Newfoundland Fleet &c. with which we parted on the 5^th of June, & proceeded on our passage towards Barbadoes, with two Frigates & 19 Sail of Merchantmen .... We arrived last Monday at Barbadoes, which place we found under arms at our approach—& was informed of the taking of Tobago by the French—here we found only three Men-of-Warr. Two Admirals having sailed from thence two days before our arrival, having left orders for our Fleet to proceed to this place on arrival, & take other ships from hence to join for Jamaica. We left that unfortunate Island Barbadoes on Tuesday night & arrived here yesterday. But not before I had taken Sally on shore, to see the Dismal ruins of a once flourishing Town. 'Tis impossible to describe the dreadful effects of the Hurricane,* not a single house but what was somewhat Damaged & whole Streets in ruins. The Church which was a very Elegant one Level'd & some hundreds yet lay buried in the ruins. Three bells out of six are safe & placed up near a Temporary Church .... every article of Produce is very scarce, particularly fruit, all the Trees in the Island having been blown up by the roots. S^{t} Lucia is about 25 Leagues from Barbadoes so we soon run it here, but to our disappointment saw Ad^{ml} Drake coming out as we made the Island, going to S^{t} Kitts (Xoph^{rs}) .... The French made an attack on this place last May & landed some Thousand Troops, seven Ships of the Line anchored, none of ours being here, but the Battery on the Hill soon drove them out & they were obliged to get their Men off in great confusion. A Lieu^{t} Mills of the Navy resides on shore & had about 200 Men on the Hills, with which he accomplished his Defence .... [Sketch of Pigeon Island with its guns given.]

Love & Duty to Mother, Brother, Sisters, Aunt, etc., Villers's, M^{r} Little, M^{r} Sherwood. Addressed to "M^{r} Lilley Smith, Coventry, Warwicks^{hire}."

3. 1781, July 30, S^{t} Kitts .... two days from S^{t} Lucia, Sir George Rodney sent two line of Battle ships from hence to convoy us up from S^{t} L^{a}. On our arrival here yesterday we found Sir Geo. R. squadron & Adm. Drake's with a convoy ready to sail for England .... Sir Geo. Rodney is just sailed for S^{t} Eustatia to which place we are to sail tomorrow.

4. 1781, Nov. 19, Jamaica, Kingston. The late dreadful season the worst & most fatal to all kinds, both Europeans & old standers that ever was known. Last Wednesday the 15th Nov. the Thermometer was up so high as 92. The Morn^{gs} are cool & pleasant as the North Wind now begins to come in. Yo^{r} daur. & myself ride round the Race Course every morn^{g} at day break .... I am sorry to inform you of the Death of a very worthy & promising young Man—poor Dawson died the 31st Oct^{r} of a putrid Fever. A lock of his hair I now enclose for his poor Mother. Mr. Craven his uncle M^{r} Mayo's partner. My cousin Dr. Grant. Flour in Barrels which contained about 200 w^{t} has for some time sold at Publick Vendue for £16 p^{r} Bar. but is now down to £8 owing to two large Prizes having come in a few days ago loaded with that article ....

The ham which my aunt Gascoigne was so kind as to give Sarah .... money due to me from my name being on the Bristols Books about 8 Months .... you can learn at the Navy Office, when I came the Bristol was gone home & the Capt^{n} was dead .... When the Æolus left Jamaica I sold my pay to Capt^{n} Atkins. Dec^{r} 23. The Cork Fleet are arrived at Barbadoes & compleatly blocked up by 36 Sail of the Line .... Our Governor leaves us in a few days which we are all heartily happy at, altho' we have reason to fear, we shall not have a better in Gen^{l} Campbell. Dalling has been treating the Council & Assembly this fortnight so they are studying elegant Addresses for him to carry home ....

5. 1782, Jan. 14. Cheese 3 shillings p^{r} pound & hams D^{o} as to flour a loaf like a halfpenny roll with you for 7½^{d} .... The Death of my Grandmother on New Years Day after a few days illness, her estate being Personal her Husband comes in for it, indeed one half was spent before she died. My Uncle gets 9 Negroes which she had for life & saves a £100 p^{r} ann. which was paid out of his Estate . . . . tis unfortunate for me she had not died before she married, as she was worth £5000 & by will left it to myself & Rob^{t} Brereton but when she married she made all over to the longest liver . . . . We are under the greatest apprehensions of the Spaniards & French attacking us . . . . the few Regiments we have have not half their Complements of Men & but four Ships of the Line however it must be a great force that can carry Port Royal. Gen^{l} Campbell our present L^{t} Gov^{r} is acting with the utmost Diligence to get all the Ports in Order & the Militia daily exercising likewise the Engineers, we have booms ready to lay across the channell on their approach. We do not expect them to come with less than 25,000 soldiers . . . . They make little or no secret at the Havannah that Jamaica will soon be theirs . . . . As M^{r} Harrison did not make myself or Sally a present of Mourning I had almost resolved not to go into it neither did my uncle but my aunt prevailed upon us . . . . Potatoes has sold lately at £4 p^{r} hundred I suppose they did not cost above 4 shillings at home.

* Of 10 Oct. 1780, when there was a loss of life exceeding 3000 and of property over one million sterling.

6. 1782, Feb. 10. About two o'clock in the Morning of the 3^{d} Inst. a fire broke out at a small dwelling house tenanted by a Free Mulatto Woman (but how we cannot learn for certain yet think t'was set on fire by some of the French Prisoners who to the Scandal of our Police go at large here) & was so very rapid in its communication to the adjoining houses that the neighbours had scarcely time to save their lives, it soon made its way into Port Royal Street which is the most capital tho' not largest street in Town, as all the Merchants Stores are there & the place of Business . . . . four or five streets & as many lanes were all at one time on fire . . . . our houses have all Balconies joining each other & tops of the houses shingled with wood (wood split & made like your Tiles) . . . . The Fire continued burning till Six in the Morning, by which time one hundred houses were consumed & nine wharfs with all their stores & goods. I have an acquaintance who poor fellow, the day before was a man of easy Fortune, he lost on one wharf 2500 Barrels of Beef & Pork, 1500 firkins of Butter & 70 Pipes of fine Madeira wine, & is not now worth £500. One Liverpool house has lost £25,000 which is the most that has befell one concern, scarcely a house that is burnt that rented for less than £80 per ann' & some so high as £200, the loss is computed at about a Million & a half . . . . My uncle has sent us a cook & waiting boy which came to him from his Mother's death. Tea before the fire was at 22/6 & is now at the enormous price of forty shillings p^{r} p^{d}. I am informed there are not now four chests in Town. I wish I had all here from your shop in Coventry.

7. 1782, March 5. My uncle yesterday gave me a sight of all the Private Intelligence of our spies to the Governor. The French & Spaniards should land 10,000 at Port Antonio which has a noble harbour for their Fleet . . . . 10,000 at Morant Bay about 30 miles to windward of Kingston—10,000 at Carlisle Bay about 40 miles to leeward of Kingston & where I am sorry to say there is not a gun mounted & a fine open country to march thro' to Spanish Town, 10,000 to be kept on board the ships as a reserve, a feint to be made on Port Royal by the whole fleet . . . . Our Assembly found it absolutely necessary to consent to the laying on Martial Law . . . . We have only one Frigate out at this critical juncture & ab^{t} 18 Pendants flying here in Harbour instead of at least one half being out on observation . . . . My cousin M^{rs} Grant has offered to take Sally in the mountains with her family, she will either go with her or my aunt Dwarris. I believe I must now go & take my old post as first Lieut^{t} of the 12 Apostle Battery opposite P^{t} Royal (42 Pounders & a blockhouse with 8 six D^{o}) . . . . there are certain Mountains laid out for the reception of women & children well fortified & where all the live stock is to be drove . . . . Ham 5/ p^{r} pound cheese D^{o} butter 3/9^{d} & that very indifferent.

[Mrs. Sarah Dwarris his wife adds:] We shall be obliged to my Uncle V. for the ale as also to my Mother for cheese & bacon.

8. 1782, April 16. We have the park of artillery next our house & stands on some of our vacant ground . . . . there has been about £250,000 expended already . . . . Two of the best companys of one of the Kingston battalions of Militia lately ground their arms & refuse duty to act under a certain Major only because he did not know his duty so well as these martinets . . . . The London fleet is at S^{t} Lucia. My uncle Dr. Grant.

9. 1782, May 6. Our minds are perfectly easy now as to the French & Spaniards from the glorious victory obtained over the French on the 12th April by S^{r} Geo: Rodney, we have six sail of French line of battle ships here amongst which is the Ville de Paris of 110 guns & had 1500 men on board, with their Admiral Compte De Grasse who is develish surly in Spanish Town, a house being provided for him there, as it is tho^{t} he is a man of too much penetration & observation to go at large. My old friend Viscount D'Escan commanded the Glorieux & behaved like an hero every mast & stick being carried away, he nailed his colours to the stump of the main mast, he had about 400 killed on board as was hisself fine fellow. S^{r} Geo: is here . . . . Adm^{l} Hood is cruizing off Hispaniola & Rowley is ordered out in a few days with 5 fresh sail of the line to recruit them, as to Greaves you may order him home & hang him if you please . . . . I think my mother [in law] cannot do otherwise than like Killingworth, for tis the most pleasant village I ever saw.

10. 1782, May 18. [Mrs. S. D. to her father:] When you write to Birmingham remember me to my Grandfather & Aunt Wheeler.

11. 1782, June 26. The London fleet is safe arrived after only a passage of 8 weeks one of which they stayed at S^{t} Lucia. In the fleet came M^{rs} Neufville & M^{r} & M^{rs} Wallace from Notting' the first my uncle's dau'r in law who went off ab^{t} 14 months since for her health & has spent my uncle 100 guineas a month in England, having kept a coach 2 footmen &c. this he told me hisself. Beef when we came was at its old price 7½, soon after at 10, no one complained as everything was rising, lately on S^{r} Geo: fleet coming in it got up to a shilling & is now at the price of 2 bitts 1^{s} 3^{d} pork has this week past got up to [blot] mutton now at 1. 10½ 3 bitts, flour indeed is now low £5 p^{r} barrell, fish of which we have every day great plenty has made a quicker progress than anything else from a bitt to 2. Jack Keyworth is always with us when on shore . . . . he is gone out with Drake's squadron . . . . he belongs to the Conqueror 74.

12. 1782, July 8. M^{r} M^{rs} & Miss Wallace & two children, the family we went to visit in Nottinghamshire . . . . the death of a sister who died a few weeks before their arrival . . . . the death of cousin Keyworth in his ship after only 14 hours sickness of a putrid fever.

13. 1782, Sept. 13. Poor Wallace* is dead, also his son a fine boy about 5 years old, & this day month died M^{rs} Neufville† . . . . her jealousy of us. M^{r} Brereton has lately taken unto himself a young wife of twenty . . . . he is 58 & he has a son older than his mother in law. We have not at present any naval force here having sent them all to New York. We have above 4000 regulars.

14. 1783, April 6. Peace being established it was proclaimed here a few days since & the people shewed every possible mark of disapprobation . . . . the American loyalists, several of whom are here in the greatest distress. I believe there has been about £3000 distributed amongst the poorer sort, most of them are going back to America .... The late additional duty on sugars .... I believe Mr Conway your present Member was at school with me at Harrow as there were three of them there & boarded at Mrs Underwoods when I was at Mrs Reeves's .... Mr Ellis* who was unfortunately lost in his passage home last year held 12,000 acres under different patents from the Crown, out of which he had about 1800 settled & would neither lease or sell the rest & why? because we in this Island only pay a farthing an acre quit rent. But if an Act was to pass the Assembly to lay on 6d in the pound on all uncultivated land the owners would have it at their option either to pay it or give up the surplusage land, by which means several Americans who are come here with numbers of negroes would immediately begin to patent those lands ....

* Peter Wallace, Esq., died 15 July, aged 28, and his son Tho. Stoakes Wallace died the following day, aged 4 years and 5 months; bur. in Kingston Churchyard. (Archer, 152.)

15. 1783, April 17. The Prince is here as also Lord Hoods fleet of 18 sail of the line .... he is still only a midshipman & always appears in that uniform with his star & garter.

16. 1783, May 11. [Mrs. S. D. to her father.] We have not heard from my uncle Keyworth .... the captain had sent my cousin John's clothes to Plymouth. My sister Nancy.

17. 1783, June 27. [Mrs. S. Dwarris to her father.] Mr. Waugh a distant relation of Mr Dwarris's sails for England in a few days & who as (sic) ever treated us with the greatest kindness for after my many illnesses in Kingston I have allways gone to his house at Port Royal for change of air .... he is a plain & honest man & never was in England before. Mr Dwarris writes about Mr & Mrs Gascoignes affairs. In my last I mentioned having gone twice on board the Formidable to visit Adl Pigot .... Sr Charles Douglass his first Captain. Mr Benton the present ordnance store keeper is a Lincolnshire man & his sister was married to a gentleman that lives near Market Rason. My uncle will make about 170 large shipping h'ds & abt 110 puncheons of rum .... his relation Mr Maclean.

18. 1783, July 1. Letter of introduction for Mr Waugh to Lilley Smith, Esq.

19. 1783, Aug. 31. The thermometer up as high as 92 .... we have lost several gentleman of this town from the heat & amongst the rest one of our members & Mr Brereton who married an aunt of mine now stands as candidate for the ensuing election. Lord Montague who raised a regiment in America & who has been here some time, sailed yesterday with most of his officers & men for Nova Scotia. Mr Waugh a very worthy young man who has by his industry acquired about £5000. We expect Admiral Gambier out to relieve Admiral Rowley† in whom we shall not have the least loss as he is a very proud & illiterate man. Mrs S. D. writes of Nancy & Billy [her sister and brother].

20. 1783, Oct. 10. On Thursday last the 6th Oct. the thermometer was up at 102. I have known it twice at 97 but never felt the heat equal to this last week.

21. 1784, Jan. 18. Admiral Rowley sails tomorrow for England. We have been feasting & carousing from one house to another these three weeks past .... a dance at my uncles .... he was as young as any one in company & pushed about claret & champaigne very briskly, the latter article is very dear in this island £10 per dozen the other £5, but he can very well afford it, as he is out of debt & has no children to save for. Mr Harris & Mrs. Wallace . . . . his estate about 50 miles out of town . . . . he has been appointed one of the judges.

* John Ellis was lost at sea with his wife and niece. He was father of Lord Seaford.

[Mrs. S. D. adds:] "As my father used to be very much troubled with the rumatics if he will follow this receipt he will find it do him a great deal of good but he must take it for a long time. Take two ounces of lignumvitæ add a quart of haff rum half brandy shake it well together & take a teaspoonful of it night & morning in a wine glass of water."

22. 1784, March 20. Mrs S. D. Five weeks visit to Mr Harris's family & Mrs Wallace. Mr Harris & Mrs. Wallace leave Jamaica in May next for England where she is going to stay two or three years with her children which she left there, she means to reside at Notingham. Mr. H. will not stay with her in England as she cannot prevail upon her mother to leave this country.

23. 1784, May 3. Mrs Wallace & her father . . . . the little girl which she brought out is to stay here with the grandmother. Miss Wallace Mr Wallaces sister who came out at the same time is very happily married, she has got a fine little girl . . . . Mrs. Brereton too has a little girl.

24. 1784, June 28. Altho' youth is frequently sent from here to England for improvement it must be recollected that they are in general youth of fortune or great expectations 'tis therefore thot most advisable to send them to the first schools such as Eaton or Westminster where they may form connections with the first familys in the kingdom.

Mr Harris is a very genteel man, but rich & prodigious stingey.

25. 1784, July 20. Poor Mr Thomas Maclean is dead. & we are in mourning for him; my uncle. who has always refused honours, has been at length tempted to accept from Governor Campbell before he left us the appointment of Custos Rotulorum of St Georges, the parish where his estate lies, so that he is the Honble F. D. . . . . Remember us to my uncle & aunt Keyworth grandfather Cowlys cousins &c.

26. 1784, Aug. 11. We have experienced a very dreadful hurricane on this side of the country it continued its course about 90 miles, all the estates 60 miles to windward of this town are destroyed—all the ships but two here were either sunk run on ground or dismasted, & several of their crews totally lost—all the brick walls & fences down & several houses unroofed. A vessell coming round the island is lost & 11 passengers in it amongst which is the collector of Port Antonio. If my father can now ask Ld B. or any other acquaintce to apply to the commissioners for it for me it will be a greater matter to me than any other person for although the salary is only £120 per ann yet the profits make it about 400 currency. & I could carry on my business at Port Antonio the only atty that practised there lately having died.

27. 1784, Aug. 29. Mr Sam. Cator who from his great extravagance has for I may say a 3d time ruined himself is now in goal for life . . . . he will lose two places which he enjoys comptroller of Port Antonio & Deputy Register of the Court of Vice Admiralty . . . . a new appointment lays with a Mr Owsley Rowley* of London the patentee. I served my time 5 years with Mr Hinton East the former Dep. Regr. The judge is an old school fellow of mine Mr Ricketts† a counsellor at our bar . . . . [details about applying for the post].

† William Henry Ricketts, born 1740, barrister-at-law of Gray's Inn 1765, bencher 1769, M. of C., of Longwood, Hants, died in Jamaica 5 Oct. 1798. Geo. Crawford Ricketts, his nephew, was Attorney-Gen. in 1796, and died 6 April 1811.

28. 1784, Oct. 1. At Mr Brereton's. His neighbour Mr Clarke & Dr Pugh of Spanish Town were rivals the lady being on a visit at Mr Clarkes. The doctor calling at Mr Clarkes asked for a glass of water alighted from his horse & told Mr C. he had something to say to him in private & went in a field at the back of the house, when he pulled out a surgical knife & stabbed him twice in the left breast. Mr Clarke run a few yards called out he was a dead man fell & expired. The wretch then plunged the same bloody instrum[t] into his own breast 4 times & expired . . . . I run to the place where they both lay 10 yards of each other . . . . both amiable young men . . . . his corpse was buried in the highway.

29. 1784, Nov. 14. We have in the course of this last week catched 3 desperate pirates & murderers who murdered a whole crew & brought the vessell in here & sold the same with her cargoe (consisting of lumber from America) they have spent all the money in rioting.

30. 1784, Dec. 12. I believe this packet carries home our Assemblies Petition to have the duties lately laid on sugar taken off & to allow the Americans to trade with us in their own bottoms . . . . Since our late hurricane 1st Aug. the Governor with the advice of his Counsel allowed the Americans to bring us supplies in their own vessells.

31. 1785, Jan. 23. The death of the land & tide surveyor of this port a Mr Fenton. My aunt Dwarris has been out of town these five weeks at her sons wedding. Mr Stoakes Harris is dayly expected. [Example of his stinginess.]

32. 1785, March 20. My dear Sally was safely delivered of a clever little boy on the 5th inst. We are hourly expecting to hear of some dust being kicked up between the Spaniards & our people on the Mosquito Shore our ships of warr are all under sailing orders at Port Royal . . . . we have had 300 men sent to the defence of that place by different detachments in small vessells & without any noise. Mr Lewis* the oracle of the barr is dead he made the year he died £8000. [On the back is a letter from W. D. Smith, Coventry, 20 May 1785, to his father.]

33. 1785, April 24. Mr & Mrs Dunston at my uncle Dwarris's. I was there the night before last to pay a formal visit to her.

34. 1785, July 17. Mrs. S. D. to her Mother:—The death of our beloved child—so much the greater was our loss after having been married so many years without a child. Mrs. Brereton was brought to bed a few days since of another girl. Mrs Hayes a cousin of Mr D. was very kind when my little Fortunatus was sick. I wrote to my sister Mrs Ellis.

[Mr. W. D. writes:] I have been this morning sent for to the goal by a gentleman who calls himself The Hon[ble] Cap. Manners . . . . what or who he is no person here knows. He knows everybody in Lincoln & my friends the Bolderos in Yorkshire . . . . he has been but illiterately brought up at Beverly in Yorkshire, he came here about 5 months since & brought a great quantity of cash with him which is all gone.

35. 1785, Sept. 11. On Sat. the 27th Aug. about 4 o'clock it began to blow very hard . . . . the hurricane increased dreadfully till about 8 o'clock . . . . many more houses blown down than in the last one in July 84 . . . . there were about 300 poor souls lost in this harbour. My uncle's estate has suffered much, part of his own dwelling house unshingled, his overseers house down all the negroe houses gone, his canes lodged &c. however his damage does not exceed £3000.

36. 1785, Sept. 25. My uncle has been all his life hitherto contented with a cattle mill on his estate. But now he is out of debt & declining in life, he wants to clear 200 more acres of land for canes, & make a large waterwork—the water he is to carry 3 miles in a stone guttering to his wheel, he has laid out a plan to run in debt to the amount of about £10,000 & he is then to make 300 hogsheads of sugar a year. I think him much to blame. He has no children is out of debt & makes about 150 hds now & abt 90 puncheons of rum—he was 59 yesterday. He has ordered Sally to leave off eating suppers. When first I came over to this island every family had regularly cloth laid at night, & now I scarce know 4 familys that do, persons in general finding they enjoy better health by leaving off that meal.

37. 1785, Dec. 11. Mr Harris has been extremely ill up at Stoaksfield* his country house.

38. 1786, March 27. We have nothing stirring here but seizing the poor American vessells & condemning them for not being navigated agreeable to law.

39. 1786, June 26. Mrs. Dunstons little girl was christened about a month ago . . . . the child's name is Ann Margaret Dwarris. Having some time since been requested by my uncle Keyworth to send him home some rum (60 gallons) . . . . it is distilled with cocoa nuts & civil (sic) oranges & I shall put in the juice of about 20 large pines. I am to have it at 2/8 pr gallon which is the price my uncle's factor sold 15 puncheons at last week in town . . . . to prevent its being touched by sailors it is to be cased in another large cask & will cost £11 st.

40 and 41. 1786, July 3. The death of the Hon. Tho. Davison the collector of this port. Mr. Papley the collector at Port Antonio may succeed to it . . . . one of the commissioners of the customs being married to his sister.

42. 1786, July 16. Mr Brereton & his wife have given up their house in town & are gone to live at their penn . . . . she is his third wife his first was Miss Dwarris my uncle's sister & by whom he has a son now living who is learning the profession of the law. Mr B. has two children by his present wife.

43. 1786, July 25. The puncheon of rum properly cased is shipped on board the Justina for want of the opportunity of a droguer coming round was obliged to ship it at Annotto Bay.

44. 1786, Oct. 13. Mrs S. D. My brother William in L. My little niece.

45. 1786, Nov. 6. We have experienced another hurricane which happened in the morning of the 20th of last month but has had less dreadful effects on this side of the island than any storm has had these five years. By accounts from the windward parts, we learn that they have suffered very much & will lose about one third of their next sugar crop. But the Leeward accounts are dreadful they have suffered but little less than in the year 1780 when the whole town of Savannah La Mar was destroyed scarcely a house or set of works in two of their parishes but what are half down & their canes blown up by the roots. My uncle had just got 40 hhds. on board a ship at the Bay near his estate & the ship has rode out the storm. The 23d Sally brought a fine little boy.

* See description of this old mansion in Cundall's "Historic Jamaica," p. 242.

46. 1786, Nov. 19. The windward part of the island have been provident enough to put in a great quantity of ground provisions such as sweet potatoes.

47. 1786, Dec. 9. Our dear little fellow was christend the third of this month at my uncles . . . . we had a very genteel supper & sat down about twenty we have called him Fortunatus William Lilley. Mr Dwarris stood for you & Mrs. Davidson for my aunt Mary. My uncle and aunt Dwarris both stood for themselves & a Mrs. Betts. Mrs. Brereton was brought to bed about a month before me of another girl she has now three & the eldest not four years old.

Mr & Mrs. Davidson talk of going home in the spring. You will I dare say see them as they will be a good deal with her sister in Nottingham.

48. 1787, Jan. 21. We are going this week to inoculate our dear boy as the small pox is in town & of a very favourable kind.

This island will be all in flames in a few weeks if the Lieut Govr does not dissolve our rascally Assembly. Just before they were prorogued they passed bills giving their Speaker £1500 their messenger £500 st. & to an old broken member a Sir Chas Price Bart £5000 by way of mortgage.* Our Speaker never had any sallary before.

The death of Mrs. Dunstons child 8 months old.

49. 1787, Feb. 18. Mr. Cousins who is arrived informed me that he had seen my aunt Cowley & my grandfather . . . . Most Europeans die here from imprudence & excess on first coming over. Here is a club held in honour of Rodneys victory every 12th April by old veterans, who meet & spend the day jovially. To be a member a person must have been 30 years here, an honorary member 25 years, & there generally dines from forty to fifty, all from within the vicinity of this town. My uncle's paternal & family estate which has been in this country above 100 years in our possession. Mrs. Hayes a cousin of Mr. Dwarris has been staying with me.

50. 1787, July 15. I was very happy to hear that your son was married to so agreeable a young lady.

51. 1787, Aug. 11. My uncle has lately made a purchase of a house in town which he gave £2000 for. They do not dine till near five & never eat suppers. I cannot say I am fond of such very late hours. I think three o'clock a very good hour if you are alone, & if you have company half past.

52. 1787, Sept. 30. I am just come from a jaunt to the north side of the island, but the roads to that part are always bad, and particularly so this time of the year. I was under the necessity of swimming my horse over one river three times, the precipices & road are very dangerous, in many places not above a foot wide—A man who made an immense fortune here in former days ust to say—make me your executor & I dont care who is made your heir.

53. 1788, Jan. 27. My dear little Fortune is very well. Mr. Brereton is at present very much involved.

54. 1788, April 22. My uncle had in company with my aunt the misfortune to be over turned in his chariot this day 3 weeks by which she was much bruised & he had his left arm broke . . . . he lives so very low . . . . I think a man at his time of life (63) should drink as usual his half pint of Madeira (it being our common wine here) . . . . To my certain knowledge he advanced £500 three months since to keep her son out of goal, who with his wife & child lives in his house & upon his generosity. My 17 years residence in this island.

55. 1788, June 1. Notwithstanding all our frugality we dont spend less than £500 a year.

56. 1788, Sept. 6. I send early intelligence of the vacancy of the comptrollers place of Port Antonio of this island by the death of a very particular old friend a Mr Cator, who has a brother of prodigious fortune 14 or 15 £1000 pr ann. in London . . . . the place or salary is either 80 or £100 pr ann. besides a few perquisites & entirely a sineeure . . . . about 20 barristers & above 100 attorneys here. My uncle Keyworth's loss of a son . . . . his other son & Sukey. It would amuse you & my mother to hear little Fortune talk half negroe like, which is the worst thing attending children here, but as they are always playing with the negroe children they learn their ways & language, notwithstanding my being very particular.

57. 1788, Nov. 9. Dr Grant* has been exceedingly ill—he has a very fine boy in England by his first wife, & by the present one three, two boys & a girl the youngest is not above two months old . . . . poor old Mrs Grant was really miserable at the thoughts of losing her son, as he is the only child she has left. The fire my uncle had at his estate . . . . the great house was on fire two or three times but it was put out . . . . My aunt has not been there these eighteen years.

Nov. 15. Prince William Henry has just entered Port Royal harbour . . . . he is come to winter here.

too severely operated on her affectionate mind; she was buried the following day at Mount-Charles in the same parish by the side of her beloved sister attended to her grave by many who knew her worth and who testified by their sorrow the loss society had sustained by her premature death: She died as she had lived an exalted pattern for imitation. T. H. BARRITT Esqr:
Died Octr 28th 1817
Aged 79 Years.

Mr. Leonard C. Price of Essex Lodge, Ewell, writes that there is a much worn stone with "Barritt Vault" on it, in the pathway leading up to the tower from Church Street.

1796, March 24. Thomas Hercey Barritt, Esq., W., and Ann Mellas, Spr; Lic. (St. George's, Hanover Square.) His will was dated 17 March 1817. He came of an old Jamaican family (Archer, 29 and 33). His first wife was Eleanor, dau. of Sam. Booth of Vere, and I think Geo. Booth Barritt of Lewisham in 1807 was their son.

GARBRAND HALL, EWELL.

A lofty arched gateway on the west side of the street leads to the mansion. It is in the Adams style, a large talbot standing on the top and the usual sphinxes lower down at the sides of the arch. There is a rough-looking shield with many coats of paint on it, which render the identification of the arms difficult, but they are Barritt and Garbrand quarterly. Edmondson's "Heraldry" gives grants of both, viz.:—

Barritt: Azure, on a chevron Ermine between three griffins' heads erased Or, two serpents in saltier, as part of a caduceus proper. Crest: A talbot's head per fess Argent and Ermine, collared Or, cared Sable. Granted to Thomas Hercy Barritt of Jamaica Oct. 28, 1768.

Garbrand: Or, a battle-axe in bend sinister, surmounted of a launce in bend dexter, and in chief a dart barwise pheoned and flighted, all proper. Granted to Joshua Garbrand of Jamaica Oct. 28, 1768.

Notes and Queries.

FENWICK OF THE WEST INDIES.

I am engaged in the work of tracing the family of Fenwick, both in Northumberland, England, the county of their origin, and the original thirteen states of the United States. In some instances the Fenwicks came direct to the Coast line of North America, but apparently in other cases, as in the case of my great-grandfather, John Fenwick of South Carolina, they came from the Islands, particularly Barbados, and unquestionably Jamaica, possibly Antigua. I am to-day tracing, through Mr. Lopez of Spanish Town, the record of the Fenwicks in Jamaica, commencing with Henry Fenwick, who was a member of the Assembly for St. Catherine in 1678.

I have a large amount of information regarding the Fenwicks of Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and South Carolina, they apparently being all members of the family, who came direct, with the exception of those in South Carolina, who were represented by two distinct family heads, John Fenwick of Charleston and London, formerly of Barbados, and Robert Fenwick, who came from the West Indies to Charleston in about 1690, on the ship "Loyal Jamaica," a so-called privateer. With this Robert Fenwick, the first arrival (whose relationship to John Fenwick is not established), came some of the leading family progenitors of Charleston and vicinity.

Any information would be greatly appreciated.

LANDFORD LODGE, CO. WILTS.

This mansion was formerly denominated Breach House, and belonged, with the estate attached to it, to Dodington Egerton, Esq. In 1776 Sir William Heathcote of Hursley in Hampshire, Bart., purchased the property; and, having taken down the greater part of the former residence, rebuilt nearly the whole of the present mansion house in a style of architecture somewhat corresponding with Hursley Lodge. He, however, sold it in 1787 to . . . . Spooner, Esq., and in 1792 Mr. Spooner again disposed of it with the adjacent lands to Samuel Greatheed, Esq., who made it his permanent residence.

On his death the estate descended to his eldest son and heir of the same name, who also resides here, and has made considerable improvements in the premises. (Hoare's "Wilts," v., 87.)

On a mural tablet in the north chapel of the Church :—

"Near this place are deposited the remains of M[rs] MARY GREATHEED, widow of CRAISTER GREATHEED, Esq. who died 6th Oct. 1792, aged 66 years."

In the churchyard :—

"Here are deposited the remains of SAMUEL GREATHEED, Esquire, of Landford Lodge, who died July 10, 1827,* aged 77 years."

WEST INDIAN INCUMBERED ESTATES COURT.

March 27—30, 1858. Re Greatheed.

A petition for the sale of the Arnos Vale Estate in St. Vincent. The estate is charged as to one moiety with a jointure to Mrs. Sophia G., the widow of the late Sam. G., Esq. (who d. in 1827), and the entirety is charged by his will with a sum of £21,000 for his three younger children John G., Esq., Sophia the wife of the Rev. Richard Burgess, and Mary the wife of Barnard Trollope, Esq., in equal shares. Reference to Chancery suits of G. v. G. and G. v. Elliott. £2000 arrears of jointure are due to the widow and £3,276 principal due to each of the younger children with interest. The estate has been unproductive since 1854, when the jointress distrained on the crops and stock. Conditional order for sale made absolute.

Nov. 1, 1858. The first sale by auction of this Court took place on 1 Nov., and was of the above estate of 454 acres, and it was knocked down to the Rev. F. R. Braithwaite for £10,050.

* The year 1827 is an error for 1829.

May 12, 1859. The following claims on the proceeds of sale were settled, viz.: Mr. Tho. Chapman, consignee from 1850—55, £734—allowed; Messrs. Davis and Boddington about £3,286, balance of account current—allowed. In April 1843 Sam. G., owing the firm £5,261, executed a mortgage. Mr. Wm. Sam. G. on coming of age inherited an insolvent estate, sold his commission in the army, and from 1850—53 acted as manager and receiver and conducted the estate successfully until Mrs. Sophia G. distrained in 1855 on the mules, etc., and threw the estate out of cultivation.

May 27, 1859. John G., by his will dated 18 Sept. 1786, devised a moiety of the estate in question to his mother Mary G. in tail and devised all the residue to her, and by a codicil dated 25 May 1790 gave a rent charge of £40 c. to Anne McDowal, which has been paid her for 60 years. Claim with 6 years' arrears allowed.

June 24, 1859. The claims of Mr. Wm. Sam. G., the owner, and Mr. John G. disallowed. (Cust's "W. I. Estates and Reports," pp. 207—245.)

In the Privy Council on appeal. Feb. 7—March 29, 1860. As to the manager's claim. In 1823 Sam. G. was tenant in fee simple of a moiety of the estate subject to a charge of £600 a year jointure to his wife Sophia. He was tenant-in-tail of the other moiety. He had two sons Sam. and John and two daus. Mary and Sophia, and on 26 May 1823 made his will and charged his estate with £24,000 for his younger children, and devised the whole estate to his eldest son and appointed his two sons Sam. and John Ex'ors. Testator died 10 July 1829 leaving his wife and four children surviving. On the death of his father, Samuel the eldest son became tenant-in-tail, and in 1830, having attained 21, barred the entail. In Hilary term 1833 a suit was instituted in the Court of Chancery, Eng., by John G. v. his brother Sam., and on 14 Dec. 1833 a decree was made. £10,000, part of the £24,000, was then paid, and the balance due eventually reduced to £9,500. On 22 June 1843 Sam. G. mortgaged the plantation to Messrs. Davis and Boddington to secure £5,261. Sam. G. died 4 April 1847 intestate as to his real estate in the W.I., which descended to W. S. G. his eldest son. £1,800 claim by the Ex'or of Grant the manager allowed. (Ibid., pp. 246—261.)

In 1805 on Arno's Vale, St. George's Parish, there were 337 negroes, and the crop made 615 hhds. of sugar, 184 pun. of rum and 92 of molasses. For the 14 years 1800—14 the average crop was 456 hhds. of sugar.

Browne of Antigua.

Antigua, January 20, 1817.

Sir,

I would have had the pleasure of writing you long ere this on the subject of the Family Queries you confided to my attention, but the hope I have had of affording you very satisfactory information respecting your Ancestors induced me to defer communicating such as I obtained soon after my arrival from England.

The knowledge I have as yet gained of your Family is principally from the Records of the Register's Office, which I took every pains to search, and began with the Establishment of the Records as early as the year 1668. I beg leave therefore to inform you that in the year 1668 there was living in this Island Anthony Browne, to whom Lord Willoughby of Parham, the Governor in Chief of Barbados and the rest of the Charibbee Islands, in that year, made a Grant of a Plantation in Willoughby bay Division. Between 1668 and 1699 there were several Transfers of Property to Anthony Browne, and in the latter year I find Anthony Browne and Elizabeth his Wife began conveying away Property. In 1703 a Deposition was made by Anthony Browne, who swore he was then forty years of age, which circumstance proves that he was not the same Anthony

Browne to whom the Grant of the plantation was made, and induces me to believe that he to whom the Grant was made, so early as in the year 1668, was one of the first settlers in the Island, the same Person with Elizabeth his wife conveying away property, and the Father of the Anthony Browne who swore he was forty years of age in 1703; although it is not improbable that the latter also might have been a settler, since he appears to have been born in 1663. During the years 1703 and until 1708 several Transfers of Property principally in Nonsuch Division were made and recorded to Anthony Browne; and in the latter year Anthony Browne and Mary his Wife sold and conveyed property in that Division. This circumstance made me again strongly suppose that the latter Anthony Browne was either the Son of, or a different Person from, the first mentioned Anthony Browne, who in 1699 had a Wife named Elizabeth, and in 1708, supposing him to have become a settler before 1668, when he obtained a Grant of a Plantation, he must have been a very old man. During the years 1708 and 1720 several Deeds and Conveyances relating to Lands in Nonsuch Division and Willoughby bay are recorded to and from Anthony Browne and Mary his Wife. In 1726 the Will of Anthony Browne, dated January 1723, was proved and recorded, in which his Wife Mary is mentioned, and his Sons and Daughters, viz., Anthony Browne, to whom his Estate at Point Cagoway and all the Residue of his Estates, Thomas Browne, Nicholas Browne, George Browne, Barbara Cary, Sarah Browne, and Mary Browne, and also his Grand Daughter Mary Cary. In 1730 Anthony Browne, Son of Anthony Browne, conveyed his Estate, &c., mentioned in the Will of his Father Anthony Browne, to George Skerrett, and soon after that George Skerrett married Mary Browne the widow; for in the same year he and his Wife Mary, late Mary Browne, Widow, made a Deed of Gift to Sarah Browne Daughter of the said Mary Skerrett. George Skerrett died in about 1734, in which year his Will is dated, and in 1735 his Executors conveyed Slaves to his Widow Mary Skerrett. Nicholas Browne, one of the Brothers of the third mentioned Anthony Browne, made his Will and died in 1740, at which time it appears he left living two of his Brothers, Anthony Browne and Thomas Browne; three Nephews Will^m^ Howard Browne, Anthony Browne and Francis Browne, and one Niece Mary Browne; but it was not mentioned whose Children were those Nephews and the Niece. You observe however a fourth Anthony Browne is introduced! In 1759 Mary Skerrett made her Will which was proved and recorded in 1760, and therein she also mentioned her Grandsons William Browne, Anthony Browne and Francis Browne, and her Great Grand Daughter Sarah Browne, Daughter of her Grand Son Anthony Browne. This Grand Son I have taken to be your Father, who must have died before the year 1773 before your Mother, since in that year I find by the Will of Mary Bladen, late Browne, and your Father's Sister,* some devises to her Nephew Anthony Browne, Son of Sarah Browne, Widow.

Upon finding out the foregoing particulars, I applied to the Rector of the Parish of Saint Philip in the Division of Willoughby bay, in which it appears the Family of Browne resided and possessed considerable property almost from the earliest Settlement of the Island; but I regret to inform you that I was much disappointed in finding only your marriage inserted in the Parish Record of Marriages, without being able to ascertain from any of the Parish Books the Baptism, Marriage, or Death of any other Browne, except the Death of your Brother, which happened not many years ago, notwithstanding there is a Family Vault in the Church yard, which has arisen from the unpardonable negligence and carelessness of former Rectors and Clerks of the Parish; since I had the mortification to observe that the Records in the possession of the present Rector, The Reverend George Collins, are not older in date than a few years previous to your Marriage, and it is only at the present time that they are correctly kept. On my ride to Willoughby bay, which you know is very far from Saint John's, to ascertain the particular dates of Baptisms, Marriages and Deaths in the Family, and procure the necessary Certificates to substantiate them, I was informed, upon making particular inquiries, that many very aged Persons were living in that Division of the Island, and some of them upon Lands or Estates which were your ancestors, who could give me some useful information; but I have not been able from unavoidable causes to take the necessary rides to Willoughby bay. I beg leave to inform you there is also a Natural Daughter of your Father, before his Marriage, who is rather advanced in age, and who has sent to inform me that she recollected your Grand Father, and would give me all the Information in her power. You will, I hope, excuse this part of my Letter, and be assured I shall use her Information only as far as it may lead to Facts, which other Persons may be able to prove.

* The letter writer has made a slip here—for sister read aunt.

Having your Instructions now before me, in which the first Information particularly wanted is to ascertain who Anthony Browne your Grandfather was, whether a native of the Island, or if not, from whence he came; I think on this head I need only call your attention to the statement I have made of the Family in the forepart of my Letter, founded upon Records in the Register's Office; and from that statement there can be no doubt but that your Grand father was a Native of this Island, and the Son of Mary Skerrett, who was the Widow of one Anthony Browne, whose birth place cannot be traced with so much probability as that of his Son, for as I said before he might have been the Son of the Anthony Browne whose Wife was Elizabeth, or like him might have come to this Island soon after it's Settlement. It is unfortunate for the chain of circumstances so well connected from the time of Anthony Browne the Great Grand Father and Husband of Mary Skerrett to your time, that before the former period I could find no Record of a Will or any Deeds to shew the Relationship, if any, between your Great Grand Father and the Anthony Browne who had a Grant in 1668. The only hope I have is in finding the Petition of that Anthony Browne which is mentioned in the Grant to have been presented to the Council and Assembly, in which there may be a description of the Person. I have made repeated searches in the Secretary's Office for that purpose, but on account of the Records to which I must refer being so ancient, it is very difficult to find out anything. You may however rely on my continued exertions.

I have not procured any of the Certificates of Marriages, Baptisms, &c., mentioned in your Instructions, for the reasons I have given respecting the Parish Records of Saint Philip—there being no Entries made in them; and I could not find any after making regular searches in the Parish Books of Saint John's; but it is my intention to search the Books of all the Parishes, to the Rectors of some of which I have already applied for leave.

A copy of M^rs^ Skerrett's will, and that of her first Husband Anthony Browne, I have seen and have deferr'd obtaining them till I hear from you—but I could not find the Will of your Father or Mother in the Register's Office; neither could I find any Will of your Grandfather; but in that of his Brother Nicholas Browne there are no allusions made to Relations before settled in the Island.

I have agreeably to your directions endeavoured to ascertain whether any Family of the name of Malbranke ever resided in or owned any Estates in the Island, but I have not been able to find out any Person of that name among the Records which I searched for the purpose from 1668.

It may be necessary Sir for me to observe that I have sometimes found the name spell'd without an e; but more often with it.

I now beg leave to assure you that I shall use my best endeavours to find out the particulars you wish, and I will not fail to make the necessary Extracts, and secure the proof of every circumstance I think necessary to the cause; and I hope by the next packet to give you more interesting intelligence; at the same time I wish you to be informed that my motive for making enquiries and searches relating to the affair you have confided to me I endeavour to keep as much as possible to myself.

As I have been at some expence in procuring the Information which I have given you, and other expences will necessarily be incurred, I have taken the liberty of draw^{n} upon you for £30 Sterling at thirty days Sight, which I beg you will pay, and which Sum I shall hold to your Credit, and apply it towards defraying the Expenses incurred in your business, of which I shall furnish you with a correct account. I have preferred drawing on you as you desired, to calling upon M^{r} Athill or any other Person for money, as it would be unpleasant to do so as often as small expenses are incurred.

I remain with great Respect,
Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant
Richard Wilson.

NOTES BY THE EDITOR.

In the Book of Claims dating from 1667 there is an entry under Willoughby Bay of a claim by Richard Brown to 45 acres (as administrator of George Mould in right of his wife Barbery Mould, sister of deceased), also 60 acres by purchase, total 105 acres.

In the Book of Patents, transcribed in 1678 from an earlier book, is the record of a grant in 1668 at Willoughby Bay to Anthony Browne of 105 acres, but there is no patent to Richard. John Cox of Nonsuch, by his will dated 1675, bequeathed all residue (13,000 lbs.) and his 50 acres to Anthony Brown, a child, his son-in-law (? stepson). The will of Darby Noonan of Nonsuch, dated 1691, was witnessed by Anthony Browne. In a petition in 1716 for a patent Anthony Browne stated that he owned 50 acres in Nonsuch, also parcels of 20, 10, 10 and 75 acres. The 50 acres may have been derived from John Cox. In the pedigree printed in "Antigua," i., 74, I erroneously took it for granted that Anthony II., the testator of 1723, was identical with Anthony I., the patentee of 1668, but there is no doubt that there were two generations. The first settlers were nearly always dead by 1700, or if octogenarians by 1710. I do not know which register books Mr. Wilson saw in 1817, but in 1888-9 I found baptisms commenced in 1767, marriages in 1683 and burials in 1685. Anthony Browne V. was M.P. for Hedon in 1806 and nearly fifty years agent for Antigua, dying in Kensington 6 March 1840, aged 72. ("G.M.," p. 442.) He was a partner of Browne, Cobbe and Co. of 67 Lombard Street, Bankers. His wife Dorothy was a dau. of the Hon. Samuel Harman of Harmans in St. Philip's parish, but there were no children. The extraordinary conservatism among West Indians in retaining the same christian name is here exemplified, there being five generations of Anthony. In my own family there have been six generations of Thomas. It is most confusing for the genealogist.

Administrations (P.C.C.) relating to West Indians.

In the early Administration Act books the entries are in contracted Latin. In the margin is noted the diocese, but if the person died abroad "in partibus" is written. The great majority of such were of course mariners, and they are usually noted as having died "in partibus ultramarinis" or "transmarinis" or "super alto mare," the name of the ship not as a rule being given. Occasionally persons are recorded as having died in Scotland, Ireland, East India, Persia, Muscovy, Spain, France, Germany, Holland, etc. Entries of Virginia appear in 1627.

Commencing my search in 1623, I found no entry of the W. I. previous to 1630, when the first one occurs relating, as one would expect, to S^{t} Christopher, which was founded shortly before Barbados. This entry is given as a specimen in full:—

"1630, June. Daniel Gulliford. Octavo die emanavit Comiſſio Bridgitte Gulliford relicte Danielis Gulliford nup̃ infra Inſulam ſ̃ti Chriſtoferi in ptibus ultramarinis def hẽntis etc. ad adminiſtrand bona jura et Cred dẽi dẽf de bene etc. Coram Richo Knight Cl̃ico vigore Com̃ etc. Jurat 12^{li} 6^{s} 10^{d}." fo. 174.

* The words "Adm'on on the" in each entry for the saving of space I omit.

† Captain Roger North, brother to Lord North, had accompanied Sir Walter Raleigh on the latter's last voyage to Guiana. After his return a company was formed in 1618, and with other adventurers to the number of 120 he secretly sailed from Plymouth the last of April 1620, settled 100 leagues up the Amazon, and returned with a cargo of tobacco, but through Spanish opposition was committed to the Tower. Mr. Tho. Warner, John Rhodes, and Robert Bims, after living two years on the Amazon, sailed for England, went thence to Virginia, and then settled the Island of St. Christopher in 1623-24. Captain North in 1628 dispatched a reinforcement of four ships with 200 men: "the first ship with 112 men not one miscarried." The administration of the goods of the above 24 men in 1633 leads one to suspect that a ship was lost, or these settlers were carried off by an epidemic. ("John Smith's Travels," II., 188. Colonial Cal. of State Papers.)

‡ "Cap^{t} Anthony Hylton, President of Mevis," signed the Treaty of Peace 5 Sept. and 8 Nov. 1628 at St. Christopher. He became about 1631 Governor of Tortuga, where the English Governor (probably Hylton) was killed at the Spanish attack in Dec. 1634. (See ante, II., 5.)

Burt of Nevis.

The family of Burt occupied from early days a very prominent position in the Leeward Islands. A short pedigree appeared in Vol. I. of "Antigua" in 1894, since which date additional information has accumulated, many notes being contributed by Lieut.-Col. H. W. Pook. The following revised pedigree is believed to be fairly accurate. It corrects the Pym one which appeared ante, Vol. III.

NOTES.

Sir Tho. Rich, Bart., Vice-Admiral of the Blue, in his will dated 2 June 1798, mentions his six natural children by Eliz. Burt. Proved 3 May 1803. (469, Marriott.)

Eliz. Burt, late of Stonehouse, co. Devon, now of Sonning, co. Berks, in her will dated 3 May 1804, after naming her six children by her late much beloved friend Sir Tho. Rich, states that she is entitled to £3500 charged upon her late father's estate in the W. I. by his will, and to £210 from the estate of her late brother. Proved 4 March 1805. (117, Nelson.) Sir Thomas had been married at S^{t} George's, Hanover Sq., 15 July 1771, to Anne Willis, who survived him.

* In the Baronetage she is called "Fanny Burt." The Trollope family history gives no information about her.

This Eliz. Burt has not been identified. Chas. Pym Burt in his will of 1772 refers to £3500, but does not name a dau. Elizabeth. His brother Gov. W. M. Burt had a dau. Eliz., a minor in 1776.

Charles Burt, entered in the muster book of the "Seahorse" 8 Oct. 1773, born in the W. I., aged 18, Midshipman, died 10 Nov. 1776.

Edward Burt, born at Abergavenny, is half-brother of the late Lieut. Charles Burt, R.N. Entered the R.N. as a 1st class volunteer 12 Aug. 1795, aged 17; Midshipman 2 Sept. 1796; Lieut. 28 Dec. 1802; Commander 23 Jan. 1808; invalided June 1810; pensioner of Greenwich Hospital 25 June 1842; on the reserved list July 1851. He has an eldest dau. Charlotte Eliz., m. to Commander L. H. Wray, R.N.; and a second dau. Anna, m. 28 Feb. 1842 to John Lewis, Esq., of the Madras Army, s. of the late Rear-Adm. J. M. Lewis. (O'Byrne's "Naval Biog. Dict.," 1849, and "Naval Records.")

ST. GEORGE'S, MONTSERRAT.

1724 June 23 Thomas Mead & Mary Hussy, by L.
1724 Nov. 10 M^{r} Patrick Roch & Bridget Hussy, by L.

Robert Hussey of London had sons Edward, George, Robert, Peter and Joseph, all in Barbados in 1666. (Berry's "Sussex and Surrey.")

Oliver and Royall of Massachusetts and Antigua.

Col. Robert Oliver, second son of the Hon. Col. Richard Oliver of St. John's, Antigua, was born in 1700, but his baptism is not on record there. At his father's death in 1716 he received a legacy of £1500 c., and then purchased "Graers" of 56 acres for £1500 c., and "Duggans" of 40 acres for £360 c., and with other lands formed a plantation of 120 acres in Nonsuch, N. of St. Philip's Church, about 12 miles from St. John's. In 1726, on the death of the widow of his uncle Robert Oliver, he succeeded to a plantation of 89 acres in New North Sound, on the N. side of Gunthorpes, but this being neglected and ruinous he obtained a private Act in 1731 for the sale of it to Lt.-Gov. Edw. Byam for £1127 c., which sum was then charged on his estate at Nonsuch.

He had married in 1721-22 Anne Brown, only child and heiress of James Brown, deceased. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, had remarried in 1707 Isaac Royall of Dorchester, Mass., and of Popeshead, Antigua, by whom she had a son Isaac Royall, Jr., and a dau. Penelope, who m. Col. Henry Vassall of Boston and Jamaica.

On account of this family connection Robert Oliver forsook the Island in 1738 and removed to Dorchester, where he purchased lands and built a house, dying there in 1762, aged 62. In the memoir of the Royalls by E. D. Harris, Boston, it is stated that in 1747 Isaac Royall, Jr., and Henry Vassall leased for 7 years of Robert Oliver a plantation of 148 acres in Popeshead, but I cannot identify this estate. Col. Robert Oliver had five sons, of whom the second, Thomas, was Lt.-Gov. of Mass. 1774-76, removing the latter year to England on account of the rebellion. His first wife, Eliz. Vassall, d. in England, but when or where is not known. The Lt.-Governor's estate in Mass. having been confiscated, he might have been ruined like other Loyalists, but visiting Antigua, where he still owned his Nonsuch plantation, he there m. in 1781 Harriet, only child and h. of the Hon. Byam Freeman, deceased, and so acquired "Byam Freemans" plantation in Popeshead (afterwards called Fryers Hill), besides a good fortune. He then seems to have turned planter, and in 1790 purchased Morgans of 74 acres for £3000, and Watkin's of 93 acres for £2500. In 1791 he leased Mrs. Vassall's moiety of Royalls, and purchased the late Isaac Royall's moiety. In 1793 he sold his father's plantation in Nonsuch, then of 104 acres, for £4400, and in 1806 purchased Mrs. Vassall's moiety of Royalls for about £6000. He retired to Bristol, where he d. in 1815 at the age of 83, leaving no sons but four daus. by his 1st wife and two by his 2nd one. Byam Freemans, otherwise Fryers Hill estate, descended by the intail to Harriet Watkins O., the elder dau. by the 2nd wife, who m. Capt. Henry Haynes, R.N., of the Barbados family, and had two children, Freeman Oliver Haynes, Fellow of Caius C., Camb., and Thomasina Oliver Haynes, who m. the late Sir W. S. Thomas, Bart., and their heirs appear to have sold the estate. I have inquired in several likely quarters for any colonial papers and historic documents that may have been the Lt.-Governor's, but without success.

Mr. Edmund Haynes of 9 New Square, grands. of the above F. O. H., possesses a miniature of the Lt.-Governor and a fine portrait of "Uncle Isaac Oliver," a yr. brother, b. 1738, killed in a duel, probably at Boston, at the age of about 25. Sir George Thomas, Bart., also lent me a plan of Fryers Hill and Dunbars. The Lt.-Gov. had a nephew, Richd. O., a planter in Antigua, who m. at St. John's in 1805 Eliz. Isles, spr., and d. in 1809. His widow made her will in 1823, and left her few slaves and small property to her nephews Isles, so presumably she left no children. If there are any male descendants of this branch in U.S.A. I shall be glad if they will communicate with me.

TOBIN OF NEVIS. (Ante, 1.)

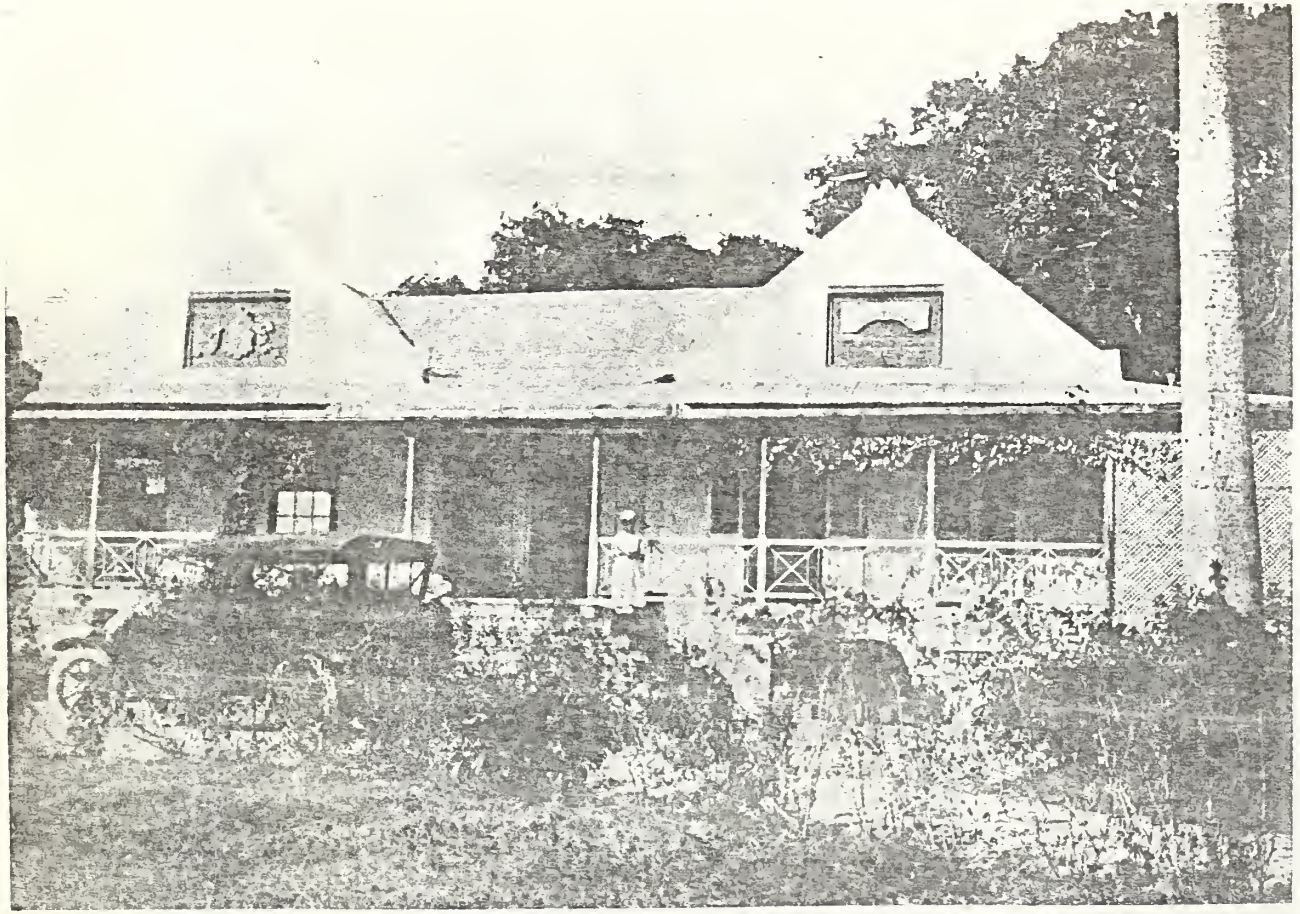
Maurice Berkeley, Jun., had married in London, in or before 1731, Sarah, dau. of Walter Tobin. Henrietta Tobin, spinster, was her sister, and afterwards married in 1736 Samuel Clarke, Jun.

In the Nevis Records (vol. ii., 55) I noted an indenture dated 29 May 1725, by which Sarah Tobin, widow and executrix of Walter Tobin, deceased, quits claim against Mary Symonds, widow and relict of John Symonds, and her son Edward Symonds. This John Symonds was born 1686, B.A. Oxford 1708 and Speaker 1712. His wife Mary was probably the "Sister Symonds" of John Tobin in 1724.

Stoney Grove, the property of Messrs. Gillespie Brothers, and the residence of the late Hon. J. S. Hollings, is a fine old mansion. The Tobins formerly owned it, and Mrs. Bromley writes that the original plan of the estate with their coat of arms on it is preserved there.



Lears, in the parish of St. Michael, Barbados.

Lears, St. Michael's.

This old house is a few miles from Bridgetown. The basement and ground floor are of the usual eighteenth century style, the stonework being very strong and thick. The gables are also probably original, but not the roof, which is now of ugly galvanized iron. The oblong wooden panel in the east or right-hand gable has:—

"R. 1651 H.
JAN. 28 E. 1758."

R. H. was doubtless the builder of the mansion and the second date may record a reconstruction. The shield on the panel in the west gable has suffered damage, but there are traces of arms, viz., two bends and a canton. Some charges which may have been affixed are now missing. In a grove adjoining is a brick vault surmounted by a stone slab recording the burial of "Mrs Alce Lear," wife of Thomas Lear, who died 24 Oct. 1688. On a mantled shield are his Arms: .... a fesse ragulé between three unicorns' heads couped. Crest: A demi-unicorn rampant couped, in its paws a spear—over wreath and helmet.

Peter Lear was appointed by Penn and Venables one of the commissioners of the Prize Office in Barbados in 1655. He became a wealthy planter, and was created a Baronet on 2 July 1660, having then retired to London, and died s.p. in 1684. At Allhallows Barking, was baptized—

1660 March 1 Thomas sonne of Sir Thos Leare.

In the census of the island in 1680 under St. George's Parish are entered:—

Sr Peter Leare	336	acres,	8	white servants,	123 negroes.
Mr Thomas Leare	127	„	1	„ „	75 „

Sir Peter was succeeded by his nephew and heir Sir Thomas of Lindridge, co. Devon, M.P. for Ashburton 13 Will. III. and 1 Anne, who died s.p. 1705, having married Isabella, third dau. of Sir William Courtenay, Knt., of Powderham Castle (who was bapt. 18 Dec. 1660). Sir Thomas was succeeded by his next brother Sir John, who died about 1740, when the title became extinct. By his wife, a dau. of Christopher Wolston, he left Mary, an only child, who mar. Sir Thomas Tipping, Bart.

1700, May 7. It was ordered that the Council meet at the house of Wm. Davis, joining upon Lears plantation near Henleys in St. Michael's parish.

Col. John Lear of Nancymond co., Virginia, was sworn a M. of C. 22 May 1683, was collector of Lower James River, and died in 1696, having married the widow of Seth Sothell, Gov. of Carolina. (Col. Cal.)

David Lear was of the same county in 1677.

Col. James Lear was M. of A. for the said county in 1683 and Tho. Lear in 1693. It is not known if this Virginian family was related to the Barbadian one, as no search has been made.

The illustration is from an enlargement of a photograph taken in 1914 by Mrs. Vere Oliver.

Francis Ford, Esq., of St. Michael's, by his will dated 1772, devised Lears to his dau. Anne. "I do also give my daus. their residence in my dwelling house on my plantation called Lears, each to have the sole use of a chamber to herself." (Ante, III., 372.)

Cotterstock Vicarage,
Oundle.

Sir, Oct. 17th, 1916.

Mr. Rose was the owner of Cotterstock Hall and Impropriator of the Rectorial Tithes. He is, I believe, buried in the chancel of the Church of Cotterstock. I do not know how he became the owner of nearly the whole of Cotterstock, I suppose by purchase, but I do not know the name. The only one near his time was a Mr. John Norton, whose name I can find.

I know nothing of the bequest of £6 yearly for apprenticing poor children. We have another called Bellamy's Charity for that purpose. Bellamy lived during the Commonwealth days, and was contemporary with Mr. Norton aforesaid. He and his son lived at different times in Cotterstock and Tansor, I believe.

I do not know anything of the 5½ acres left to the Vicar. There is no such property belonging now to the Vicar, only the vicarage and a small meadow given in lieu of common rights when the parish was enclosed.

Mr. Pate Rose gave £200 which was met by a grant from Queen Anne's Bounty Board of a similar sum, £80 of which was given for the vicarage, there having been no vicarage before. I believe the vicarage had been his property.

In the Terrier it is called the house and orchard and the extent ½ an acre. The remaining £120 was expended on leasehold land in the parish of Warmington; in the Terrier it is described as 57¾ acres, and was in little strips in various parts of the parish. At the Enclosure 30¼ acres were given instead. The measurements must have been very bad, as that I was told by the churchwarden and overseer of Warmington was the case with all the lands. He described it as 7 roods to the acre.

I believe Mr. Pate Rose was buried in the family vault. He left two daughters; one Letitia married Rev. Sir Richard Booth, and both she and her husband are buried in the vault. There is a large mural tablet to Sir R. Booth, and the burial of the others is mentioned on it. I forget the other daughter's name. The property was left to them, and they sold it to the Countess of Westmoreland, who left it to her sister's son Viscount Melville, whose nephew is the present Viscount.

I think this is all that I can tell you.

Yours faithfully,

FRANCIS BRETTANSHAW.

The humble Addresse and Petition

Petition from Antigua in 1708-9

Documents in Public Library, St. John's Town, Antigua.

The above document hangs in the Public Library in St. John's Town, the photograph having been supplied by Mr. Josè Anjo.

Of its history the Editor knows nothing, but it is evidently a duplicate of the original, dated 8 Jan. 1708-9, which is in the P.R.O. in London.

The 17 names in the two columns to the right are those of Members of the Assembly who were returned on 15 April 1708, and whose Speaker was Nathaniel Crump. The 26 names in the two columns to the left are those of merchants and planters.

The following document, being the Queen's response to the above Address, also hangs in the Library. The Governor acted in a dilatory manner and did not send home his defence until about June 1710. His disputes with the Assembly culminated in his appearance in the Court House with a party of grenadiers. On 7 Dec. over 300 armed men requested him to carry out the royal command and quit the Island. On his refusal his house was carried by assault, the total casualties on both sides being 75, including the Governor who was mortally wounded.

ASHLEY BARONY, S. CAROLINA.

Alex. Skene, to whom Sam. Wragg sold 3000 a. in 1721, was also a man of prominence in the Province.

He had originally come from Barbados, and was a M. of C. with Sam Wragg in 1717 . . . . He early conveyed away a tract of 1000 a. from the southern part of his purchase to Wm. Douglas, who transferred it to John Walter of Woking Park or Tooting, County Surrey, England . . . . 1300 acres Skene continued to hold. He apparently called his plantation "New Skene," and at his death it passed to his son John Skene. John Skene died in 1768 . . . . His real and personal property he devised to his friend Wm. Wragg, Esq., who in 1770 sold the 1300 a. to Wm. Haggatt, who renamed it "Haggatt Hall." Wm. Haggatt was an Englishman, who married Eliz. Walter the dau. of Wm. Walter and granddau. of John Walter of Woking Park. She had been educated in England, where she married Haggatt.

After Haggatt's death the property was acquired by Sam. Wainwright, who further subdivided it . . . . The name "Haggatt Hall" still survives locally, but corrupted to "Hackett's Hill" . . . .

The 1000 a. acquired by John Walter was called "Wampee" plantation, and was devised to his son William. John Walter owned considerable real estate in S. Carolina, viz., a plantation called "Red Bank" on the Copper River, and a tract of 12,000 a. called Walter's Barony, on Day's Creek or New River in Granville, now Beaufort County. Wm. Walter devised the "Wampee" plantation to his son John Alleyne Walter, who was for a time a lieutenant in Col. Wm. Moultrie's regiment, and married Jane Oliphant the dau. of Dr David Oliphant, a member of the Council of Safety, a prominent figure in the Revolutionary councils. (S. Car. Hist. and Gen. Mag., vol. xi., p. 89—91. An excellent map accompanies the article.)

Letter from the Hon. W. Mackinnen of Antigua.

Monmouth, Sept[r] the 3[d] 1782.

Sir,

Being obliged to go out of Town sooner than I expected, your obliging Note of august the 31[st] reached me at this Place; it was not therefore pofsible for me to have the Honour of waiting on you on Tuesday according to the appointment you were so good as to make.

The principal reason for which I desired to have the Honour of speaking to you, was respecting the siuspension of M[r] Jeffreason a Member of the Council of Antigua. I find by M[r] Nepean, with whom I had some Conversation on the Busineſs. that the governor had sent his Reasons for so doing. You certainly are the best judge of the Validity of those Reasons. This step was taken without the advice of the Council, the major Part of which declared to M[r] Jeffreason, they wou'd not have advised it, had they been consulted. M[r] Jeffreason is a gentleman of very good Character, a Man of considerable Estate in Antigua, and has had the best Education this Country affords. He at present fills the seat of an afsistant Judge in the Court of Common pleas; and upon his suspension from the Council, having expressed his Intention to resign his seat on the Bench, most of the Barristers addreſsed a joint letter to him, expreſsing their satisfaction with his Conduct as a judge, and desiring him not to resign his Seat, as they thought it would be a Detriment to the publick.

There was another Matter I wished to have the Honour of mentioning to you. Upon M[r] Shirleys going to his Government of the Leeward Islands, he carried with him a Mandamus for one M[r] Winstone, who had been a practising Lawyer in Dominica, to be of the Council of Antigua. M[r] Winstone has no Property whatever in Antigua. You certainly know, Sir, that the Councils in the old Colonies are composed of gentlemen of the best Fortunes and Families in the Colony; that the Council of Antigua constitutes the Court of Chancery and Court of Error in that Island. Not long before my Departure, M[r] Winstone appeared as advocate at the Chancery Bar, tho' a judge of the Court. I confeſs I was a good deal surprized at the Inconsisteney of a gentleman's sitting one Day as Judge and the next appearing as advocate at the Bar of the same Court; I therefore moved that he should make his Election, either to be judge, or Counsel, and not act in both Capacities in the Court of Chaneery, which was carried without opposition. The Governor, I have reason to imagine, will endeavour, if he has not already done it, to support M[r] Winstone, but I am confident, when you consider the evil Tendency of a Man's being judge and advocate in the same Court, you cannot approve of it; for such a Person might receive a large Fee in a Cause, draw the Pleadings, conduct the Proceſs to a hearing, then give his Brief to an other to argue it, and sit as judge in the Cause, the Inconsistency and evil Tendency of which is too glaring to be dwelt upon. I have not the least variance with the governor or M[r] Winstone, on the contrary am upon Terms of Civility with the former, whom I look upon as a well-meaning Man. There are some other Matters, I should be glad to converse with you upon, which I shall reserve till I have the Honour of a personal Interview upon my return to Town. In the mean time, if you please to favour me with a Line addreſsed to me at this Place I shall esteem it an Honour done to

with great Respect your most obedient humble Servant
WILLIAM MACKINNEN.

(Notes on the preceding letter.)

Governor-Col. Tho. Shirley wrote home on 2 May 1782, that he had suspended Mr. Jeaffreson of the Council for saying: "The King could do what he pleased with his Privy Council, and that he had a corrupt Parliament to give him a sanction for it, or Words to that Effect," and on my calling him to order said: "Why, you yourself think so too, don't you?" Later in the year the Governor was ordered to re-instate Mr. Jeaffreson and not to act so hastily for the future. This Robert Jeaffreson matriculated from St. Mary's Hall, Oxford, in 1766, aged 17. He eventually sold his estate and died in England about 1807.

In a list of the Council of July 1783 W. Mackinnen was noted as absent. Col. Shirley had been Lieut.-Governor of Dominica, before being appointed, about 4 April 1781, to succeed the late Wm. Mathew Burt as Governor of the Leeward Islands. Chas. Winstone on 4 Oct. 1780 took the oaths as Solicitor-General, and the mandamus appointing him a M. of. C. was dated 30 April 1781. He returned to Dominica in 1783, where he continued to reside for many years.

Letter from Wm. Woodley, Esq., of St. Kitts.

MY LORD,

Ever since I had the Honour of being seen by your Lordship at S[t] James's, I have been prevented paying my personal Respects to you by the Gout which is only now leaving me; and I shall be happy if your Lordship will afford me an early opportunity of waiting upon you on a Buſineſs which some of my Friends have already made known to you by their Sollicitation in my Behalf to succeed S[r] Thomas Shirley in the Government of the Leeward Islands. The Governor's public Declaration for two years together of his intending to return to England was the Reason of my making the early Application I have done, as I shall be able to explain to your Lordship when I have the Honour of waiting upon you.

I am, with my great Esteem and Regard your Lordships very obedient humble Servant
W[M] WOODLEY.

Stratford Place, Dec[r] 21[st] 1787.

(Notes to Woodley letter.)

On 6 Jan. 1787 Governor Shirley was granted six months' leave of absence, but did not apparently sail until 18 June 1788. This is confirmed by the letter. On 22 Nov. 1789 he wrote from Barbados that he had arrived the previous day, 28 days out from Falmouth. On 18 May 1791 the King accepted his resignation, and on 21 Sept. it was announced that Wm. Woodley, then at St. Kitts, was to succeed him. Woodley did not long survive, but died at St. Kitts on 2 June 1793.

St. Nicholas Abbey, Barbados.

St. Nicholas Abbey, Barbados.

This ancient stone mansion stands in the parish of St. Peter in the northern part of the Island. Very little seems to be known about its history or date of erection. In appearance it resembles an English manor house of the end of the 17th century.

Captain Charles J. P. Cave of Ditcham Park, Hampshire, its present owner, writes that the estate belonged to Abraham Cumberbatch, who died in 1785, from whom it passed to his son Edward Carlton Cumberbatch, whose daughter married Charles Cave, the writer's grandfather.

An earlier owner may have been Abraham Cumberbatch who died in 1750, leaving two daughters, of whom one married John Sober, and the other Ann, in 1726, Edward Carleton. Their son Abraham Carleton, as sole heir to his grandfather, assumed the surname of Cumberbatch, and died as already stated in 1785. (See Ante, II., 84.)

Without an examination of the title deeds and other records it is impossible to give the early descent of the estate, as although testator in 1750 desired that his plantation should be kept stocked with 250 slaves and 100 head of cattle he does not name the estate.

From inquiries just made by my friend Mr. E. G. Sinckler, who resides in the parish, it appears that the flooring of the ground floor rooms was relaid in 1813 by an English workman named Thomas Shilstone, and the house repaired. In 1913 Mr. Thaddeus Deane, the Manager, renewed the flooring, and as the previous one had thus lasted 100 years we may reasonably assume that the one worn out in 1813 (supposing it to have been of equally lasting wood) dated from about 1713.

An old man named James Chandler states that in 1831 after the hurricane, the house, being the only undamaged one in the neighbourhood, was occupied by several families. The drawing-room, dining-room and parlour have been comparatively recently panelled with cedar grown on the estate.

There is a flue for a fire-place in the corner of one of the bedrooms, but I saw no signs of a grate having ever been fixed, and the chimneys are only an ornamental feature of the design. There are also a very old bedstead and grandfather's clock, but these were not shewn me. A very beautiful arbor vitæ tree grows near the entrance, rather filling up the fore-court. The mansion with its setting of trees and shrubs is a very charming bit of old-time building, and the only example of this style in the Island. Further information is desired.

M.I. to Edward Halstead, Esq^{r}, Lieut. of y^{e} Troop, son of Lawrence, died 25th Dec. 1744, aged 26. (Archer, 50; Roby, 18.)

Laurence Halsted, lord of the manor of Sunning, co. Berks, Esq., 2nd son of John H. of Rowley, co. Lanc., a merchant of L., entered his pedigree in the Visitation of London 1634, when he had the following sons living: (1) Laurence, aged 12, (2) Abraham, (3) John, (4) Oliver, (5) James, (6) Mathias, and (7) William. An exemplification of arms and grant of crest made to him in 1628 is given in the Visitation of Berks (Harl. Soc. Pub., ii., 136). It is probably from one of the above sons that the Halsteds of Jamaica derive their descent.

Review.

"Notes on Colonel Henry Vassall (1721—1769), his wife Penelope Royall, his house at Cambridge, and his slaves Tony and Darby." By Samuel Francis Batchelder. Cambridge, Massachusetts, 1917. 8vo, pp. 85. Reprinted from the Cambridge Historical Society's Proceedings, Vol. X.

The subject of this interesting memoir was born in Jamaica on Xmas Day 1721, the fourteenth child of Major Leonard Vassall of that island, grandson of Col. John Vassall who removed there from Virginia in 1672, and great-grandson of William Vassall, Esq., of Stepney, then of Scituate in New Plymouth, but last of Sion Hill, Barbados, at his death in 1657.

Henry's wife Penelope was the only daughter of Isaac Royal of Royalls in Popeshead, Antigua, who late in life removed to Charlestown, New England. Another relative who joined in this migration was Col. Robert Oliver of St. Philip's parish, Willoughby Bay, whose wife was a daughter of Mrs. Royall.

These West Indians formed a coterie of men of wealth, good education and cultured leisure. They erected superior houses and filled them with fine mahogany furniture, pictures, books, plate and china. They planted ornamental trees and laid out charming gardens. They kept full stables, and one of them, Col. Oliver, had his pack of hounds. With the advent of the rebellion, being loyalists, they were forced to quit their elegant homes, which were unjustly seized and confiscated by the rebels. Those who had plantations in the Islands continued to draw ample incomes, but others less fortunately situated retired to England to live out a miserable existence, dependent on the charity of the Government.

As an example of colonial life of the period this little book is highly instructive, for it contains much original information derived from letters and diaries, being also well illustrated with portraits and views, including a practically unknown Chippendale armorial book-plate by N. Hurd. A tabular pedigree of six generations serves to straighten out the intricate intermarriages.

SAMUEL MITCHELL, of Hope Vale, Grenada, W.I. President of the Council of that Island, and Colonel of the Colonial Militia (for thirty years a resident in the W.I.) born 5 Oct. 1750, died at Newport near Topsham 4 Feb. 1805. He married Mary, daughter of Daniel Floud, of Exeter, who was born 6 April 1773 and died 12 March 1861.

CREST.—A dragon's head erased Gules, holding in the mouth a cross-fitchée Or.

The arms of Floud as above described were confirmed in the time of Q. Eliz. to Sir Tho. Fludd in the county of Kent, and are now borne by the Irish family, of which Henry Flood the orator was a distinguished ornament. ("Devon Notes and Gleanings," iv., 159.)

1805, Feb. 4. At Newport, near Exeter, the Hon. Samuel Mitchell, president of his Majesty's Council at Grenada, He had spent the greatest part of his useful life in that island, which, during a period of dangerous revolt, the wisdom of his measures, & the promptitude with which they were executed, prevented from falling into the hands of the French.

For this conduct so highly honourable to his character, he received a vote of thanks from the Council, & the grateful tribute of all those who were interested in this important event. In private life he was a man whose mild virtues eminently endeared him to his family & his friends, & whose active benevolence diffused happiness through a widely-extended circle. ("G.M.," 189.)

In his will dated 26 Nov. 1804 he confirmed his wife's joynture of £500 a year and gave her £12,000 and the use of his estate of Newport. He desired to be interred in the midst of the clump of firs on the mount overlooking the marsh. All his estate passed to his dau. Mary Eliz. Stewart, who in 1836 as wife of Wm. Jas. D'Urban, together with her mother, consented to the further proving of the will. (531, Nelson.)

Santa Cruz or St. Croix.

This island, one of the group of the Virgin Islands, recently purchased from Denmark by the U.S.A., attracted during past years many settlers from the Leeward Islands. British merchants were also drawn thither by the large profits derived in war-time from the sales of cargoes. These men were often smugglers and sometimes traitors, as proved by correspondence seized by Lord Rodney at the capture of St. Eustatius.

There is an early map of 1671, with the names of plantations, in Du Tertre, iii., 114. The following list gives one a good idea of the status of the British planters, as there are Members of Council and Officers of Militia among them; evidence of their fair treatment by the Danish Government. A few notes have been added as a guide to the origin of some of the families:—

The Great House of Vernons occupies a delightful position on a steep hill overlooking Parham Harbour.

When visiting in 1914 the Hon. John Foote, who as attorney resides at the adjoining estate of Parham, I was informed that Mr. Tudway, the owner of the latter, had recently purchased Vernons, the works of which were then being "scrapped," as the canes grown on both estates were being crushed at the great central factory at Gunthorpes.

Carib Remains.

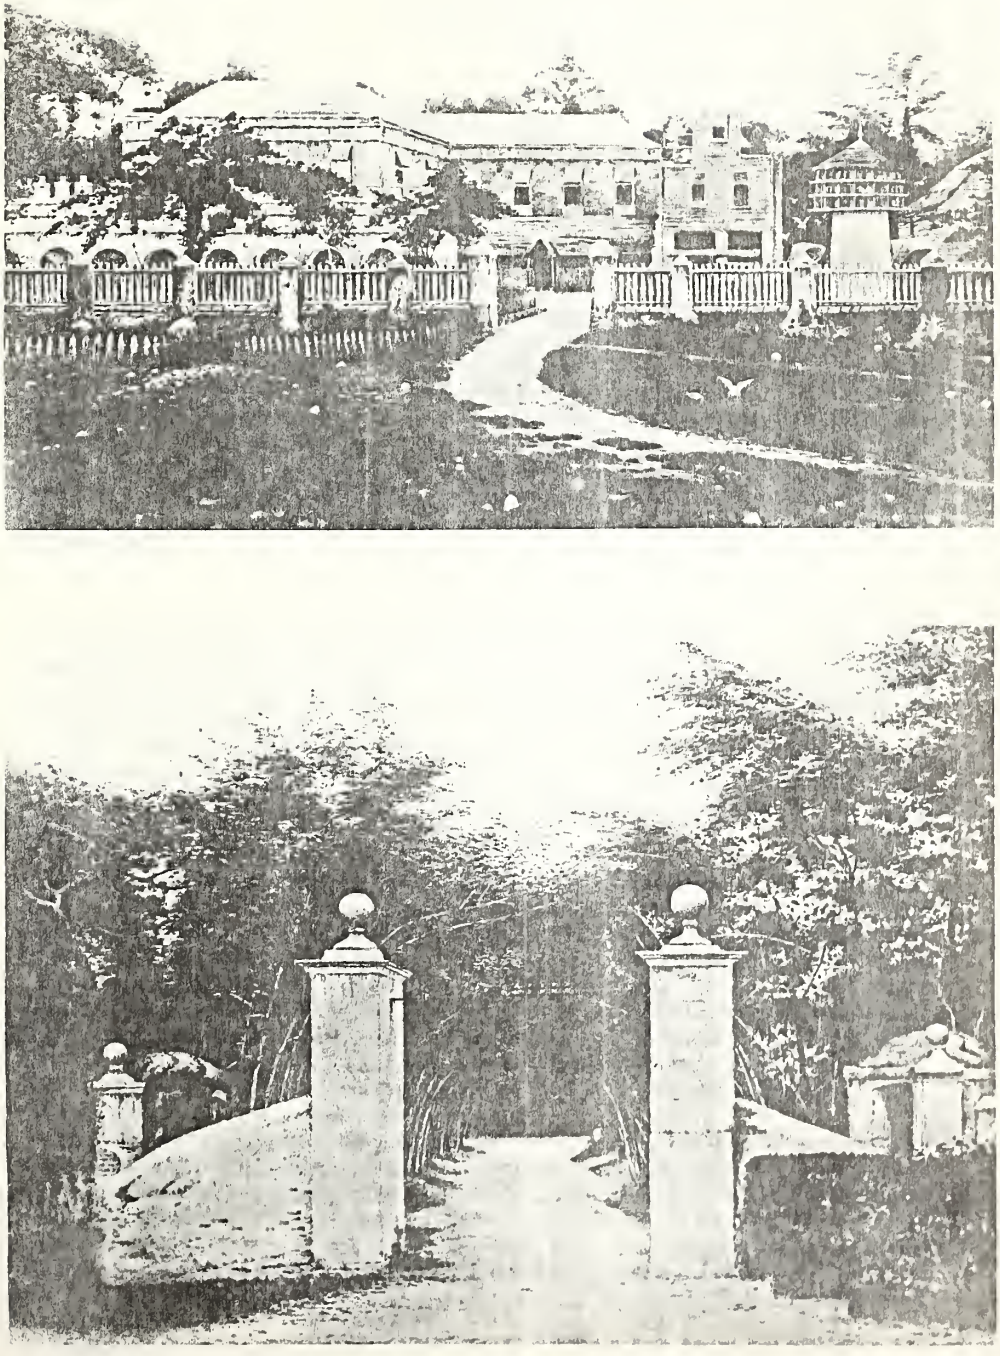
On land adjoining the high road near here Dr. Cook of Cedar Hill discovered many Carib implements. He took me to the spot and we soon found several Indian conch shell scrapers by turning up the loose soil with our sticks, but no regular digging was attempted. The same day, in company with Mr. Foote and a guide, we explored a neighbouring wooded hill, the supposed site of an Indian castle; but beyond a low bank of stones, which might have been an estate boundary, there were no signs of foundations, intrenchments or other earthworks.

The proximity to the harbour, where there would be good shelter for their canoes, would lead one to suppose that there was probably a large Indian settlement in this locality. A few miles to windward is "Indian Town Creek," and there are various caves which, if explored might possibly give evidence of early Carib occupation.

In several islands I examined small private collections of Indian relics, and one of the largest and most representative ones found its way several years ago to the Blackmore Museum in Salisbury.

An article by Mr. Branch, from an American magazine which was lent to me in Barbados, treats of the Carib remains.

Now that there is in every island a public library or institute, I would suggest that all objects of antiquarian interest should be there deposited so as to form a local collection. In that charming Carnegie library at Roseau in Dominica I noticed that a start had been made in this direction.



Holborn (or Fontabelle) House, Bridgetown, Barbados.
Built in 1650. (See p. 289.)

Holborn [or Fontabelle] House, Bridgetown, Barbados.

To the Editor.

H.M.S. Marlborough,
First Battle Squadron,
13 Sept. and 5 Oct. 1915

I thought possibly you might like to have the enclosed photographs (of paintings) of Holborn House, Barbados, in view of the article in your July number (ante, IV., 113).

The paintings were water-colours, and were painted from photographs which were taken when my father was living there.

They were cleverly done by a young artist in London, whose name I do not know.

The house and estate were in the possession of my family from about 1850 until about 1904, and it was my father's seat in the W.I. during that time . . . .

During the Pope Hennesy riots [in 1876] my father, who was at that time Speaker, put up some 60 guests at Holborn for over a week, until it was safe for them to return to their homes in the country. The trees meeting overhead near the entrance were bamboos, and this was arranged by my father. The large tree in front is what was called out there an "ever-green," and the one at the back, with a trunk some 16 feet in circumference, I think was a cotton tree. I cannot, however, remember very well, as the last time I visited the Island was 27 years ago.

Percy Grant,
(Capt. R.N.)

The Editor confirms Capt. Grant's interesting description. The two small dome-like structures just inside the entrance gates are stated to be the original sentry shelters, and they are still standing. The magnificent old cotton tree is now much broken and decayed.

Lygon wrote: "I drew out at least twenty plots when I came first [1647] into the Islands which they all lik'd well enough, and yet but two of them us'd, one by Capt. Midleton and one by Capt. Standfast, and those were the two best houses I left finish'd in the Island when I came away [1650]." I have lately found an earlier will than those given ante, IV., 113, viz., that of George Stanfast of Bristol, merchant, "now resident in the Island of Barbadoes," dated 23 Feb. 1657.—"My son John to take charge of the deed of sale of the Indian River Plantations made by Col. Humphrey Walrond to me for securing the payment of £2936 st." In Mayo's Survey of 1717 are marked "Fontabell Fort" and "Fontabell river," and as this latter was an old Indian creek, where Carib remains have been found ("Schomburgk," p. 249), it seems likely that the Indian River plantation must be what was later known as Fontabell. Col. John Stanfast, the son, owned in 1680 the Mount Stanfast plantation near Hole Town (N. of Porters), but his father settled that on him at his marriage previous to 1657, and I do not think it was near the creek.

The earliest reference to the mansion in the Colonial Calendar of State Papers is in 1668, when the Council ordered on 30 Dec. that 200 barrels of powder be put into Fontabell House. The preceding April William Lord Willoughby wrote of the terrible fire that burnt three parts of the town and blew up the magazine. On 19 Aug. 1669 Major William Bate was ordered to remove the powder from the new church to Fontabell House. On 8 July 1675 the Treasurer was ordered to pay Col. John Stanfast the rent of Fontabel plantation leased to his Excellency.

Adams, Maxwell and Walker of Barbados.*

In looking over an old Law Book, entitled "Cases with opinions of eminent Counsel in matters of Law Equity and Conveyancing," I came across the following two items:—

Vol. I., p. 358. Elizabeth Maxwell, widow, late of the Island of Barbadoes, deceased, by her will disposed of the residue of her Estate, which she left to her "grand nephew Thomas Maxwell Adams, an infant son of my nephew Thomas Adams, Esq.," in tail general, whom failing to "Frances Adams, sister to the said T. M. Adams," whom failing to my brother in law George Graeme and his heirs and assigns for ever."

The said T. M. Adams was living in 1768, and had issue a son and a dau., infants of tender years. The said Frances Maxwell was also living but sans issue.

Vol. I., p. 314. Alexander Walker, Esq., being then (i.e., 19 May 1742) in Barbadoes, made his will whereby he bequeathed to his dau. and only child Newton Walker all his estate in the Island and elsewhere in the world, to be delivered to his said dau. on attaining 21 years of age or on marriage, whichever should first happen, but should she die s.p. then to his brother William Walker, but should William Walker die s.p. living at his death then to his brother in law Captain Thomas Walker, but should he also die s.p. surviving, then to his cousin George Walker. Alexander Walker died in 1759, and soon after his death Newton Walker married John Walter, Esq., and died in 1772 without ever having had issue. [This corrects the pedigree ante, p. 186.] William Walker predeceased his brother Alex. Walker. Thomas Walker was apparently living at the date of Newton's death in 1772.

Notes by the Editor.

"Maxwells" is a well-known plantation in the parish of Christ Church, close to the high road running from Hastings to Oistins.

In 1680 Tho. Maxwell owned 24 acres, 2 white servants and 30 negroes.

In 1715 the Hon. Lt.-Gen. Tho. Maxwell, Eliz. his lady, one son and five daughters were entered in the census.

Thomas son of Tho. Maxwell of Christ Church, Barbadoes, Esq., matriculated from Christ Church, Oxford, 23 Aug. 1717, aged 14. "Graemes" was an adjoining estate.

The family of Adams was also an old one in the parish.

Williams Adams, who had recently purchased a very considerable estate, was in 1701 recommended for the Council. He is stated to have married Frances, only child and heir of Col. Tho. Walrond by Frances his wife daughter of Sir Jonathan Atkins, Knt. (Burke's "L.G.")

The Hon. Tho. Adams of Adams Castle was buried at St. Michael's, 4 Sept. 1761. Margaret his wife died 30 June 1743 (?), aged 38, and was also buried there with several of her children, in the McNemara vault.

Their son, Tho. Maxwell Adams, entered Eton School 24 Jan. 1760; was admitted a student of Lincoln's Inn 21 Jan. 1762, and matriculated from Merton Coll., Oxford, 13 Aug. 1761, aged 19. This would give his birth about 1745, two years after his mother's death, so the year 1743 on her tombstone must be wrong. He married in 1770 Anne Foublanque, and she died his widow at Brompton, 27 March 1812. See his book-plate No. 160. Mr. Austen-Leigh in his MS. list of Etonians has a note of an earlier Adams, who entered Eton in Jan. 1753; perhaps William, elder brother of Tho. Maxwell Adams.

* Contributed by Mr. Erskine E. West of Dublin.

A will of Eliz. Maxwell, probably the one in question, was recorded in 1750.

Alex. Walker was son of Alex. W. of St. Peter's, a Judge, and grandson of the Rev. Wm. W., the Bishop of London's Commissary in this Island. He and his brother Wm. matriculated at Oxford on 17 Dec. 1715, aged respectively 18 and 17, but he did not graduate. He died 23 May, and was buried in Westminster Abbey 2 June 1757, aged 60, the date of 1759 in the legal case being therefore incorrect. His will was proved 21 Feb. 1758 by his daughter, then wife of John Walter, Esq. (59, Hutton.)

Will of Ralph Parkinson, Esq., of Jamaica.

Ralph Parkinson of the parish of St. James in the County of Cornwall and Island of Jamaica. Will dated 12 June 1805. If I die in this parish I desire to be buried in the churchyard near to my nephew and nieces, and that an elegant tomb* of marble be sent for and put over my grave with my age and place of nativity. I was born at Pickton in the North Riding of Yorkshire on the 14 Aug. 1762, and came to this Island on the 12 April 1778. Not one of the name of Scarlett to be asked to my funeral, and if I should die in the parish of Westmoreland I desire to be buried at White Hall* my Pen, near to my brother Robert, and that my tomb be placed there with an iron railing. To my four quadroon children which I have had by a mulatto woman, Betty Grant, that I purchased from Tryall Estate in Hanover and set free—the names are Richard, Jane, John and Robert Parkinson—£2000 st. each. They are to be educated in England and never return to Jamaica. My negroes Rose, Lilly and Minerva and wench Sally to serve them, and upon the said children going off the island I give these negroes to Betty Grant, together with Moggy and her two daus. Beckles of Barbados.*

25 Chas. II., 1672, Feb. 15. Robert Beckles, Complainant, states that a letter was sent to Barbadoes by defendant Timothy Whittingham, Esq., of Holmside, co. Durham, to Complainant to the effect that if the said Complainant would redeem Wm. Whittingham son of Defendant from slavery in Barbadoes and send him over into England he would pay to Complainant what he should lay out.

Richard Beckles, father of Complainant, was on a visit to his son in B. and brought back the said Wm. W. to England Dec^r 1670.

Redemption, transportation and other necessary expenses cost £62.

1672, March 11. Rich. Beckles of Crosgate in or nigh the City of Durham, dyer, 52, is father of complt. Says he lent to sd. W^m at Barbadoes and in England £62 at least, and confesses that he did cause the sd. W^m W. to be arrested and imprisoned at London for part of the sd. money so by him pd.

Timothy W. had complained that his son had not been brought to Durham as had been specified.

Rich. B. again deposes. Was in Barbadoes when the letter of Timothy W. arrived. He pd. to Thos. Berisford in B., with whom the sd. W^m W. was then bound by indent as servant or apprentice (to serve in any imployment the sd. Thos. B. might think fit to imploy him in for the space of 3 yrs.) for releasing him, and some small necessary apparell, £20. W^m W. after the time of his being bound by the sd. indent. committed some misdemeanour to his sd. master Berisford for wh. he was committed to prison, and was then sold by his said master for a slave to go to Jamaica for £18. of wh. the sd. B. upon satisfaction of the sum of £20 to him as aforesd. did likewise acquit the said W^m W., and delivered up the indent. dated 1669, July 23. Deponent laid out more for other necessaries of apparel and for moneys lent unto the sd. W^m W., and more other money paid and laid out in and about the transporting of the sd. W^m W. into England £12, for this dep. and W^m W. were a great while at sea at a great charge there and in much danger of suffering shipwrack in their voyage from the Barbadoes. Their vessel the W^m and J^s of London did spring a leak and break in pieces by violence of weather and this dep. and the sd. W^m W. with some danger escaped near Fayall within the King of Portugall's territory where this dep. was at much charge and was constrayned to stay by the space of a month, and then was at a second charge to contract for the sd. W^m W.'s passage into England with a master of a Dutch vessell there, wh. likewise fayling at sea he, this dep., was again at a greater charge, enforced to engage another vessel called by the name of the Fortune of Dover, whereof one W^m Hare was then master, and this dep. sometime after landed safe at Dover in England about the month of Dec. 1670.

His wife Susannah Povey d. 8 Sept. 1683, aged 27, and with two children was buried with her husband. She was a dau. of Capt. Wm. Caribbees in 1637 for the Earl of Carlisle. William's brother Thomas Povey, M.P., was clerk to the Council for Plantations (see "D.N.B."). Another brother Major Richard Povey was Sec. of Jamaica 1661—74, and a nephew Wm. Blathwayt, M.P., was a commissioner for the Plantations and clerk to the Privy Council.

Mr. Thomas Beckles, perhaps a brother of Robert, was buried at St. Michael's 10 Jan. 1677-8. From one of these probably descended Henry Beckles, Attorney Gen. of B'os, who d. 26 Feb. 1772.

ESTWICK OF BARBADOS. (Ante, III., 60; IV., 44.)

Abstracts from the Island Records.

Memoirs of William Hickey.

Edited by Alfred Spencer, 1918. Vol. II. (1775—1782).

[Pages 13 to 62 relate to a voyage to Jamaica in the ship "New Shoreham," Capt. Paul Surman.]

After calling at Barbados on 18 Oct. 1775 the author landed at Grenada, then a scene of desolation, a fire a fortnight previously having utterly destroyed the town of St. George. The fort was then garrisoned by two regiments of Infantry (one of them Highlanders), and two companies of Artillery. He was entertained by a Mr. Irwin, an old merchant residing in a melancholy, dirty house at the Carecnage, a neat little town of some 50 wooden houses. Mr. Young, the Lieut.-Gov., lived a mile up the mountain. Several of the finest sugar plantations were being ruined by the ravages of small red ants*, for whose destruction rewards of £30,000 had been unavailingly offered. The same pest for 3 years had been destroying the canes in Martinique. A week after their arrival his fellow-passenger Mr. Theophilus Byers, a young Scotch clerk, died of fever. This loss and his uncomfortable surroundings induced Hickey to leave in a small schooner for Antigua, where he spent 10 pleasant days with a family named Mathison. The "New Shoreham" calling for him, they sailed for Jamaica, anchoring on 27 Nov. at Kingston. Here he boarded at a famous lodging-house in the High Street, where at two p.m. 25 of them sat down to a plentiful board, having turtle and madeira. He was surprized to see the windows sashed, glazed, and no larger than at home, the heat and smell being most oppressive. The town abounded with noble public and private buildings, European in style and ill-calculated for such a climate. The most celebrated tavern was kept by Jack Baggs, brother to the sporting and well-known Major Baggs. After in 10 years amassing a fortune of £25,000, Baggs had squandered it in 4 years in England, but had then just returned to Jamaica, where in 3 years he again made £8000 and then died of fever.

Hickey's friend Mr. Robert Richards† placed rooms in his house at his disposal, and other persons on whom he called included the Chief Justice, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Welch‡, Mr. Baker, Mr. Webley, Mr. Coleborne, Messrs. Lyon and Ridge§, eminent attorneys and old friends of Mr. Edmund and Mr. Richard Burke (? of London). He was informed that there was no opening for practice in the Courts, the Judges having limited the number of attorneys. Mr. Richards, who had been at the Bar and filled the office of Attorney-General, and other friends all advised him to return to England. He accompanied this friend in his chariot and four to his other house in Spanish Town, where they called on the Gov. Sir Basil Keith‖, who looked dreadfully ill and emaciated. Next evening they attended a splendid ball, given in compliment to Col. Dalling¶, the Lieut.-Gov., on his arrival from Europe. Here he met the only son of Dr. Bonynge, a physician who had amassed considerable wealth, besides inheriting a large property from an elder brother.

* These ants had first appeared in Antigua in 1771, and were supposed to have been brought from Dominica.

§ Benjamin Lyon of St. Jago Park near the town of St. Jago de la Vega, in his will dated 12 Aug. 1776, names his friend James Ridge, Esq. Sir Simon Clarke, Bart., in his will dated 29 Oct. 1777, bequeathed to Mrs. Mary Willikin Ridge, wife of James Ridge, Esq., £50, and to her husband 20 guineas.

‖ Keith died 15 June 1777, after 3 years and 4 months of office, and a public monument to him was erected in the chancel of St. Catherine's, Spanish Town.

¶ Eliz., wife of Lt.-Col. John Dalling, died 6 July 1768, aged 21. (Archer, 247.) He was appointed Lt.-Gov. in 1771. General Sir John Dalling, K.B. and Bart., died at Clifton, Jan. 1798.

This young man having lost his mother when he was only 10, had spent 4 years at a school in Paris, and 3 at the College of Geneva. He kept a phaeton, a stylish "Tim Whiskey*," and half a dozen blood horses. With him Hickey went to the theatre to see the performance of a company of actors recently arrived from New York, which they left owing to the impending hostilities.

On 7 Dec. a large party started for a tour of the island, including a French Colonel, Mr. Richards, Mr. Jasper Hall† and Mr. Harrison in Mr. Richards' coach and four; the Colonel's A.D.C. and Secretary with Major Butter in Mr. Harrison's coach and four; young Mr. Bonynge and Hickey in his phaeton. In the rear was Mr. Richards' phaeton, two whiskeys and saddle horses, etc. Proceeding along the coast on the S. side, they dined upon an estate of the great Beckford‡, an Alderman of London.

In the afternoon they passed on their left, within 10 miles of Bushy Park, the residence of Dr. Bonynge§, and that night slept at the house of Alderman Kirkman, whose nephew entertained them and next day shewed them the works, which were the finest on the island. The third day they reached Savanna La Mar, visiting 2 noble estates, one belonging to the Forrest family, the other to Mr. Thellasso. There being scarcely an inn in 100 miles it was customary to stop at gentlemen's plantations. The French Colonel being suddenly recalled the party broke up, and Hickey then visited Bushy Park, an estate abounding with immense timber, the house having a noble portico at the head of a large flight of stone steps. A neighbour, Mr. Armstrong‖, a strong, hale man of 60, dined with them. He had been at a school in the North of Ireland, was badly educated and indolent. At the age of 20 was sent for by his father to Jamaica, who dying in 5 years left him an estate of £1500—£2000 a year. Dr. Bonynge was also nearly 60, thin and plain, likewise from Ireland, and nearly related to the noble family of Belvidere. He possessed 3 estates, which together yielded full £12,000 a year, but should have cleared £16,000. On 30 Dec. the writer returned to town, and on New Year's Day 1776 set off with Mr. Richards and party to Mr. Tho. Wallings at Cold Spring, a few miles from Kingston. They ascended Grand Legance Mountain full 4 miles, when they came upon a romantic spot where stood a house of 15 spacious rooms, with magnificent views over the town and harbour. Owing to the height above the sea the nights were cold, and 2 blankets and a coal fire were necessary.

Mr. Richards about 14 years previously had married a widow of large property, but she dying after 2 years bequeathed all to him, part of which was a noble estate in the parish of St. Ann, on the N. side of the island, yielding upwards of £3000 a year. In 18 months he married another wealthy widow, and she dying after 10 years left him a plantation in St. Mary's, at the E. end of the island, worth at least £6000 a year. Thus, with his own private fortune, he possessed between 11 and £12,000 a year.

On 3 Feb. Hickey set out with Mr. Richards to visit the latter's estate in St. Mary's and travelling in a phaeton for 18 miles dined at a gentlemen's house, completing their journey of as many more miles on horseback. Two miles from the mansion they were met by the slaves who danced and shouted for joy. Mr. Richards treated them with such kindness that they worked better, and the birth-rate was so high that he had not bought 20 the last 10 years. An opportunity was afforded of seeing the effect of the trade wind and current for they watched the "Augustus Cæsar,¶" commanded by Capt. Duffell, take 8 days before she succeeded in beating up 3 leagues to Port Morant*. On leaving after an 18 days stay they drove the longer half or 21 miles to a pretty penn for breakfast, where they partook of Johnny (? Journey) cakes, and then rode to Kingston.

Capt. Surman having invited Hickey to Old Harbour (about 35 miles from Kingston) where the New Shoreham lay, for the 17th March, St. Patrick's Day, they proceeded on the 15th to Dr. Bonynge's at Bushy Park, which was in the road to Old Harbour and only 6 miles from it. On his return he went with Mr. Richards to Spanish Town and they then set out on a visit to his estate in St. Ann's. After riding 8 miles they reached sixteen-mile-walk, the road passing through grand rocky scenery and past several waterfalls. Beyond they ascended and crossed the central mountain range. In all his travels the writer stated that he never beheld any scenes equal to those in this altogether beautiful Island. On descending the other side they rested for the night at an Inn, the only country one he saw. Next morning they got into the phaeton and reached the house to a late breakfast. This mansion of the best masonry and of 2 stories situated at the very edge of the surf had been erected by Mr. R's first lady.

Inland the view extended over a delightful plain several miles in extent, containing many fine sugar estates. 500 slaves joyfully greeted them on their arrival. There were no other residents within a dozen miles. Next day they rode 9 miles to the estate belonging to Mr. Fitzherbert Richards, brother of his host. The annual produce of this until the last 5 years having been 500 hhds. of sugar and 400 puncheons of rum. The overseer here being guilty of great cruelty to the slaves, Mr. Richards signed a warrant and sent him under military escort to Kingston prison, but attempting escape on the roadway he was shot. On inquiry it was discovered that the slaves were addicted to dirt eating, of which practice 200 had thus destroyed themselves.

On the 7 April, Hickey sailed for England, from Old Harbour in the "New Shoreham," the only other passengers being Capt. Dobbins of the 36th regiment, who had served 16 years in the W. I., and a little boy of 9, son of a wealthy gentleman, who was going to England to be educated.

Hickey left the island with regret for it was the finest country he ever beheld, and from its inhabitants he had experienced extraordinary civilities and acts of kindness. During a residence of 5 months he had lived extremely free in point of wine, kept late hours, exposed himself to heats and damps, but never had the slightest fever. After returning to England Hickey went twice to India and while waiting for a ship at Falmouth in Feb. 1782 "a packet arrived from the W. I., in which came young Georges,† a smart boy, at that time a midshipman belonging to the Admiral's ship on the Jamaica station, he having been obliged to return to Europe from bad health. His father was brother-in-law to Sir Ralph Payne and his family were upon the most intimate terms with mine."

This journal of Hickey is very interesting and entertaining, giving a vivid picture of the social life of the period, as entered into by a gay young man fond of pleasure and amusement. The editor possesses a MS. journal, written in 1774, one year previously, by Miss Schaw, describing her visit to Antigua and St. Kitts from which he hopes to quote in a future issue.
